How do you know if you can trust your partner after they betray you?

Cupid's Advice:

A betrayal from your partner can be a devastation that is likely to have a lasting effect on you. Even so, there are relationships that can overcome them. Should you find yourself in this situation, here are a few tips to getting back on track and trusting again:

1. There is no expiration date: Not only does your partner realize that you will need time to heal from his betrayal, but he does not dictate an end date. He sees that it is natural for you to analyze the incident and, in a way, mourn the loss of who he used to be. Plus, he knows that the relationship, during this troubled time, will not be in this state forever. So he waits.

2. The extra mile: Not only has he made amends with the issue that got you two here in the first place, but he has also gone above and beyond. Your partner is honest, caring and understanding with you. He gives you the time and attention to let you open up to him again by repeatedly opening up to you first. He focuses on re-strengthening your relationships foundation.

3. He uses this time to create a new relationship together: Because a betrayal can create a different person in us all, your partner takes advantage of this opportunity to live as the partner and person that he truly is through love. In public, he assures everyone that you come first and he speaks highly of you in a genuine way. He has learned to let go of the past...and so should you.
