What are some ways to make your wedding day magical?

Cupid's Advice:

Your wedding publicly announces that true love has been found and won. It's an event where you shout your devotion and welcome the huge transition from single living to a lifelong partnership. No matter what happens, that's pretty magical. But if you're worried about conveying this to your guests, here are some tips:

1. Foresight: Since you don't have to worry about your funeral, planning a wedding day is potentially the biggest event of your life. Make sure to give yourself ample time when picking the date. Magazines, books, friends and the internet are great outlets for the resources you'll need to get ideas and make sure you haven't forgotten anything. Remember, this is your special day, so make the choices that are special to you.

2. Simplicity: The more complications, the more can go wrong. Attendees appreciate the quality of decisions, not the quantity. A beautiful venue and lively dance floor are the foundation for the event's success. Don't burden yourself with lists of chores on your wedding day. Delegate tasks and make sure they're idiot proof.

3. Spontaneity: When that special day comes, odds are some plans are going to turn out different or not at all. Your guests will be looking to you for leadership. If you seem stressed out or anxious then unrest will quickly spread through the masses. Smile, be the voice of reason, and trust in fate. The most magical moments are the unforeseeable ones.
