What are some reasons to start dating before your divorce is finalized?

Cupid's Advice:

1. Love: Love is love. You can't stop the movement of love upon another person. Love is a strong gust of wind that comes in unexpectedly and is only embraced, never pushed away. Even though the divorce may not be finalized, you shouldn't be penalized for falling in a deeper love than your soon to be ex-husband. If you believe that you love another person, don't wait until the divorce is finalized, don't lose that person by waiting. Go for it.

2. Rough divorce: Experiencing a turbulent divorce can take a heavy toll on a woman. Their vulnerability is high, their confidence is low, they're looking for someone to treat them better than their ex did. Trying to rid themselves of these horrendous feelings, it is okay to jump in and start dating again. You need to find a sense of hope and love in the world because your life lacks both of the two. So don't feel bad to try and find love again, you deserve it.

3. Emotions: Your emotions are most likely scattered if you are going through a divorce, whether it was a rough divorce or not. Dating again will inevitably settle out the mixed feelings.
