Cupid’s Advice:

1. Personal information: You and your loved one undoubtedly know each other well, but this familiarity requires respect. Sharing personal secrets can hurt your partner. Don’t air your dirty laundry in public, and consider not airing it at all if you think it could bring hurt feelings to your relationship.

2. Disagreements: After a fight, you may want to run to your nearest friend and share all the details. While this may relieve some of your stress, sharing unresolved conflicts can cause your friends to form negative opinions of your beau. Wait until the conflict is resolved, and then decide if you need to share it.

3. Level of seriousness: When you’re in a promising relationship, you may feel the urge to tell the world that you have finally found “the one.” This divulgence, if premature, may make your beau wary. Keep your intense feelings private for the time being, and he will probably feel more comfortable.
