How do you keep rumors from ruining your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Relationships are hard in the first place, and then rumors are thrown into the equation. It is bound to get messy. Depending on how close you and your partner are, you may have to work harder to prevent rumors from wedging their way into your relationship. Social media stirs up this rumor-relationship pot even more, sometimes making it bubble over. Cupid has some advice on how to keep rumors out:

1. Truth: Truth is essential to have when you are in a relationship, especially if rumors are present. For example, say your partner saw a member of the opposite sex text you. This could be a no-big-deal, so your mate asks you if 'Jamie' texted you, you say no. This then erupts into a spiral of accusations, yelling, and a whole lot of mess. Even if it is a serious matter and you don't wish to tell your beau, tell them anyways. Truth will always triumph.

2. Communication: You know what people say, communication is key? Well they are more than right. It is necessary to communicate sharply with your partner. If rumors are present, it is even more important that you both talk about everything going on. Doing this will wash the rumors out, and leave you both with a loving and happy relationship. If you don't communicate, and let all your emotions bottle up inside, they will inevitably explode out and cause catastrophe.

3. Respect: You need to respect your partner, and your partner needs to respect you. If you or they don't, leave the relationship as soon as possible. With respect, even if you don't believe what your mate is saying, you need to go by them. If they say it is true, and the rumors are false, respect their honesty in confronting them and push the rumors away. Respect is the easiest way to get rid of the rumors for good.
