Survivor winner, Kim Spradlin, tied the knot with her fiancé Bryan Wolfe. According to People, the couple opted for an intimate wedding ceremony on a private beach in Cabo San Lucas, Mexico. "We chose a private beach near our hotel," Spradlin told People. "It's by a cove. I just wanted it to feel very organic and natural." The guest list was comprised of about 30 of the couples' closest friends and family. The blushing bride attended the ceremony in a beautiful Catherine Deanne and her bare feet. "It fits with the vibe of Cabo," she said, "and what I wanted for the wedding." The reception was also held on the beach where the guests ate sea bass as they sat around a campfire. "I wanted the whole thing to feel like a really cool party. I didn't want people to sit down and feel like they had to mind their p's and q's. So I got a cool band and lanterns, and we just spent the day with people who are important to us. I am so happy that I could be surrounded by the people I love."

What are some advantages of a tropical wedding?

Cupid's Advice:

Planning a wedding can be stressful and confusing. So many details to be put together and so many options to choose from! Cupid is here to help you out by telling you some advantages of throwing the traditional wedding out the window and opting for a tropical wedding instead:

1. Easy planning: When having a beach wedding, there is no need plan the location and decoration of a hall. The beach is naturally beautiful so there is minimal decorating necessary. A beach wedding is also more casual so there are less details that need to be perfected.

2. More time: When having a beach wedding, there is no set date that you need to be in and out like with a hall. You have more time to spend celebrating with your guests having a good time.

3. Money: With a beach wedding, the greatest advantage is the amount of money that is saved. Intimate weddings involve less people, less planning, less details, and less stress, which leads to less expense. And who wouldn't love to save a few extra bucks while still having a wonderful time?
