Celebrity News: Chace Crawford Cozies Up to Rachelle Goulding at NY Knicks Game

By Andrea Surujnauth

Gossip Girl alum, Chace Crawford, was seen getting close to Canadian model, Rachelle Goulding, during the Ny Knicks game against the Charlotte Bobcats in Madison Square Garden on March 29th. Goulding was spotted rubbing Crawford's arm and whispering in his ear throughout the game, reported UsMagazine.com. Although they were expressing extremely flirtatious behavior, a source told Usmagazine.com that there "isn't anything serious" between the two. Last year Crawford told Pop Sugar Australia what he usually looks for in a girl. "It's the way they carry themselves, that confidence. I'm open to whatever. I love a girl who's really spontaneous, someone who's up for going on a camping trip, or concert or sporting event."

How do you know when to make your relationship public?

Cupid's Advice:

Relationships are extremely delicate and need to be handled with care. Tossing it into a situation before it is ready can have some seriously negative repercussions. Being public with a relationship is a huge step and definitley needs to be thought about. Here are some ways to know when the time is right to make your new found love public:

1. Stability: Make sure your relationship and your feelings towards one another will be able to withstand the judgemental eyes of the public. Be prepared for the added pressure and make sure both of you are prepared for everyone tossing their unwanted opinions your way.

2. Agreement: Be sure that you and your beau have both agreed to taking the relationship public. Make sure you both agree on the status of the relationship and the plans for the future before spreading the word.

3. Gut-feeling: Listen to what your heart is telling you. If you are not ready to go public or if you are unsure whether or not yur relationship will last, do not go public. You need to make sure that you are happy with the decision.
