NY Daily News reports that the couple saw this as unexpected. However, they are thrilled to welcome a baby into the world!

What are some ways to announce your unplanned pregnancy?

Cupid's Advice:

Announcing an unplanned pregnancy isn't always the easiest thing to do. Especially if a. your or your mate's family are very conservative and super up tight. Or b. you are not married yet. And then there is c. a combination of a. and b. Which is not grand whatsoever. Although this may not be ideal on your to do list for a day. Cupid has some advice on how to make it simpler:

1. Parents first: Out of all the people you will tell about your unexpected pregnancy, your parents will be the most shocked. You and your mate should automatically tell them first. Your parents will thoroughly be upset if they find out about your pregnancy via mass email, Facebook status, or a tweet. You will be thankful you told your parents first. You'll get their initial reactions and know how to approach the rest of the announcement.

2. Facebook: Facebook is an easy and simple way to communicate information to your friends and family. If you have an unplanned pregnancy, do not worry about a thing. Your news will get out. With the great invention of Facebook, and other social media sites...your announcement will get easy as cake. People will have time to register your news and react on it, not getting their judgement in person!

3. Sonogram photos: Sonogram pictures are an easy way to announce any type of pregnancy. It is a great way to announce an unplanned pregnancy. Although they are not ideal in relationships. When love is present, how can you judge? A new person is coming into the world, you should celebrate it with the soon-to-be parents. Embrace that baby on the way! Congratulations all around!
