By Kerri Sheehan

Country superstar couple Blake Shelton and Miranda Lambert are getting ready to celebrate their two year anniversary since they said, "I Do." According to UsMagazine.com Shelton wants to make sure that Lambert is, "Nothing but smiles on their special day." It seems this couple is in it for the long haul as Lambert told reporters at the 2013 Academy of Country Music Awards, "We really love each other and have a real marriage outside of all of this. When this is all said and done, we will be drinking a beer together on a front porch somewhere, reminiscing about the good old days. That's what I'm happy about."

What are three ways to make your anniversary special?

Cupid's Advice:

No matter how many years together it's celebrating, an anniversary is always a special time for a couple. Cupid has some advice about how to make that day an exceptionally good one:

1. Remember why you married them: Marriage is tricky. His or her less than perfect aspects can often crowd the real reasons why you love a person. So, it's important to remember what brought you two together in the first place. Reminiscing a bit on the past will help you two come closer in the future.

2. Go away: An anniversary celebration is the perfect time to take a few days off and have a breather. Going somewhere new will help you create new memories that you will remember for years to come. If going somewhere on location will break the bank too much for you then consider planning a staycation! There are bound to be activities in your area that you've always wanted to do, but never had the time.

3. Bond: Whether it's recreating your first date, or just taking a mental stroll down memory lane together bonding on your anniversary is vital. It not only shows that you appreciate the past you had together, but also that you want to create a strong future.
