

Celebrity Relationships: Kate Middleton Taking Cooking Classes, Learning New Recipes for Prince William

By Petra Halbur

It looks like the Duchess of Cambridge has been getting in touch with her inner culinary queen. As her July due date approaches, Kate Middleton has started taking cooking lessons from her new housekeeper, Antonella Fresolone. Fresolone, who worked at Buckingham Palace for 13 years, has been teaching the mother-to-be how to make “a number of new dishes,” according to UsMagazine.com. Middleton is hoping to learn how to make some of Fresolone’s signature meals, such as her renowned homemade pasta and French bread, at the Nottingham cottage she shares with Prince William.

How can you show your partner that you care?

Cupid's Advice:

As wonderful as pregnancy is, it can also be a turbulent, chaotic period of time. With all the effort that goes into preparing for your baby, it can be difficult to take time off for you and your partner. How do you manage to show your partner that you care? Cupid has some ideas:

1. The little things: Since it's not always be practical to fly your partner out to Hawaii for the weekend, try doing some small favors that your partner will really appreciate. Whether it's volunteering to do the dishes, or offering to give a massage, incorporate tiny acts of love and consideration into your day. They won't go unnoticed.

2. Do errands together: Everyone wants to feel included. While it may not seem particularly romantic, inviting your partner to go on errands with you can be simple yet effective way to show how much you like spending time together.

3. Express affection: Whether it's holding hands, cuddling, or simply saying, "I love you," little expressions of affection are a great reminder of how much you care for your partner.
