Four months after her break up with Jason Segal, Michelle Williams may have found new love. Williams was spotted hanging out in Brooklyn with artist, Dustin Yellin, in early June. According to UsMagazine.com, the couple attended a child's birthday party together along with Williams' 7-year old daughter, Matilda. Williams has been very vocal about her priorities as a mother. "Raising the kid is the work, yeah," Williams said in April. "That's my side project and my center project."

What are some ways to debut a new relationship to family and friends?

Cupid's Advice:

It can be intimidating to introduce your new boyfriend or girlfriend to friends and family. Cupid has some ideas to help:

1. Make an event out of it: Invite your beau to join you and your friends for a night out. The mutual activity will generate casual conversation and ease nerves.

2. Don't put it off: It's difficult to determine when to open up about your relationship, but try not to wait too long. After a while, folks will begin to wonder if you have something to hide.

3. Don't build him/her up: Let your family and friends come to their own conclusion about your significant other. Jabbering on about how great he or she is will only make you seem desperate for approval.
