How do you compromise with your partner on how to raise a child?

Cupid's Advice:

Everyone has their own parenting style and this can create conflict if you and your partner have strong yet differing opinions on child rearing. Cupid is here to help:

1. Prioritize the big stuff: Face it, you and your partner won't agree on everything. So, discuss what values and methods are most important to each of you and reach a compromise.

2. Consult an expert: There are professionals who dedicate their lives to the study of child development. If you and your partner can't reach an agreement, then consult somebody who knows what they're talking about.

3. Notice what works: Ultimately, parenting is all about what's best for the child. So, take note of which tactics your child responds to the best. You may have to concede that your partner was right about a few things, but it's ultimately about the welfare of the child.
