How do you keep the status of a new relationship under wraps?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes it's best to keep your relationship quiet for a while before announcing it to friends and family. But how do you do this without outright lying? Cupid has some ideas:

1. Keep off social media: It's astonishing how many people fail to understand that when you tweet something or post something on Facebook, everyone can see it. So, make sure to keep your relationship OFF-line.

2. Avoid groups: You and your partner will probably find it difficult to conceal your relationship if you two are hanging out in a group of mutual friends. Doing so will also require active deception which will lead to hurt feelings when you eventually announce your relationship to your social circle.

3. Home dates: Keeping a relationship under wraps doesn't mean that you have to put romance on hold- you just have to keep such activities away from the public eye. Movie night, romantic dinners, snuggle time and ... other activities can (and sometimes should) all take place behind closed doors.
