

Justin Bieber's Mom Says It's 'Hard Letting Go'

By Kristyn Schwiep

Justin Bieber's mom, Pattie Mallette, has had a hard time letting go. "When your kids hit a certain age your parenting style changes and it is hard letting go," Mallette tells People. Mallette has realized it is time to let him make his own decision and own mistakes. "Every parent worries," she says. "I text and call him every day. I definitely want to know everything that he is doing and what he is going through so I try to talk to him as much as he'll let me. I mean, he's on tour and being pulled in a million different directions but we talk as much as he is able."

What are some ways to support each other as parents?

Cupid's Advice:

Letting go of your children can always seem tough but there are ways to support each other as parents. Cupid has some advice for you.

1. Have rules: Be sure that you and your partner are on board with the rules you set for your children. If you can't agree your children will not be respectful of what you expect from them.

2. Agree: When talking about your children and their future make sure that you agree on what is best to keep a stable idea of what you want for your kids.

3. Be respectful: Be respectful of each other and be respectful to your children. What you give is what you receive. If you as parents show respect you will earn respect.
