What are some ways to keep your wedding under wraps?

Cupid’s Advice:

A huge, extravagant wedding isn’t for everyone. Some people prefer a small, quiet setting, but how can you go about having an intimate wedding? No worries, Cupid has some suggestions:

1. Decide who you really want there: Having friends of friends for a big party is fun, but maybe isn't ideal for your wedding. Maybe you only want close family and friend there, which isn't a crime! Choose who you want to attend and keep it small.

2. Find a small venue: Search for a place that will allow you to have the intimacy that you desire. Wedding chapels, gardens, wineries with landscaped grounds are some suggestions for venues that can be beautiful while still being on the smaller side.

3. Make it exactly how you want it: Sometimes weddings can bring out the diva in some people – people who aren't even getting married! This is when you have to put your foot down. People might wonder why you're choosing an intimate wedding over a big one, but remember that this is what you want, and explain to them why it's important for you to do it this way.
