What are the benefits of living together before marriage?

Cupid's Advice:

Moving in together first is a good way to test if you and the one you love are ready for marriage. Cupid has some ideas on why you should consider living together before getting married:

1. Learning their habits: When you live with someone, you learn about all of their idiosyncrasies and bad habits. Before you two tie the knot, decide whether or not you can live with someone who never takes out the trash!

2. Figuring out finances: A huge part of getting married is figuring out how to merge your finances. Shacking up together first can help you establish ground rules when it comes to money as well as overcome any financial hurdles before you take a walk down the aisle.

3. Seeing their other side: Everyone acts differently in a public vs. private setting. At home, your partner might be a completely different person, and you need to know both sides of your mate before you make a big commitment.
