Cupid’s Advice:

Planning a surprise proposal can be a lot of fun and it’ll definitely be something you and your partner will remember for the rest of your lives. Before you pop the question, there are a few things you should know. Cupid has some tips:

1. Surprise yourself: When it comes to the proposal, don't plan a single thing. Surprise yourself. Go with your gut and get down on one knee when it feels right. Don't worry about the place, time, who's around, etc – you'll know when you're ready to ask your honey for their hand in marriage. They won't be expecting it and neither will you.

2. Not a peep: Don't tell anyone about your plans to ask your significant other to marry you. If you do, they might start to act different around your partner and give everything away. Keep your cool and keep this little secret to yourself until you're ready to tell the person who really matters.

3. Be creative: Proposing at places like a restaurant or park are unoriginal and boring. Do something different. Create a video proposal or something else that would be fun and interactive. This is the time to show your honey how much you care about them and want to spend the rest of your life with them.
