Cupid's Advice:

Unfortunately, every marriage isn't meant to work out. Only a strong person can admit to themselves and to their partner that their relationship just isn't what they hoped it would be. No matter how much it hurts you and the one you love, you don't have to feel obligated to stick by someone when you know in your heart it isn't what you want. Cupid is here to help:

1. Talk it out with your partner: You need to have a conversation with your significant other if you're having doubts about your relationship. Your partner might be feeling the same way as you. You'll never know until you speak up. Don't hide from the situation, you'll only make matter worse the longer you wait.

2. Give it some time: Give the marriage a fair chance if you and your new spouse are just starting out as a couple. This doesn't mean you have to wait months or years to see a change in the relationship, but you shouldn't end things so quickly if you're unsure about your feelings for your partner.

3. Divorce: Some relationships don't work out – no matter how much work and communication is put into it. If two people aren't right for each other, they shouldn't be forced to feel something they don't. Divorce doesn't have to be ugly and the friendship you may have created with your partner doesn't have to end. Think of it this way, you're doing what's best for the both of you in the long run.
