

Vanessa Carlton Ties the Knot with Stevie Nicks Officiating

By Kerri Sheehan

Vanessa Carlton is hitched! The “A Thousand Miles” singer wed singer John McCauley is past Friday. Carlton wore a fitted, long-sleeved white wedding gown, with a purple headpiece and flowers. According to UsMagazine.com, the 33-year-old tweeted, “Married this gentleman two hours ago xo.”

What are some ways to keep your wedding low-key?

Cupid’s Advice:

Cupid has some advice for how to keep your wedding low-key:

1. Invites: Keeping the invite list small will ensure that your wedding doesn't get too over the top. Invite only immediate family and close friends for a more personal affair.

Related: Florida Georgia Line's Brian Kelley Marries Brittany Cole

2. Simplicity: There are a lot of weddings that go crazy with decorations, food, and clothing, however a less elaborate wedding can celebrate two people who are in love just the same. Having simple decorations and menu will keep everything low-key.

Related Link: Kris Jenner Says Kim Kardashian and Kanye West's Wedding Will Be Big

3. The important parts: Have a talk with your partner about the elements of the wedding that they can't go without. Once you figure out each other's priorities you can see what things you can't forget.

How would you keep your weddings low-key? Share below.