What are some ways to introduce your new beau to family and friends?

Cupid's Advice:

Beginning a new relationship is an exciting feeling, but the one thing that can be a little stressful is when it's time for your new boo to meet all of your loved ones. Cupid is here to help:

1. Start small: Introduce your new partner to only a select few of your loved ones when you're first starting out. You and your significant other will already be nervous enough. There's no need to bombard your honey's personal space with all of your family and friends all at once.

2. Get together: Plan a small outing for some of your friends and family to go to. Maybe an outdoor barbeque or a nice dinner party. Keep your plans low-key so your partner doesn't feel too overwhelmed with all of the new people he/she is bound to meet.

3. Give prior notice: Make sure you give your loved ones a heads up before you introduce them to your partner. The situation could be a little awkward if they aren't even aware that you're in a new relationship. Also, make sure your significant other is comfortable with meeting your family and friends.
