How do you know when it's time to take your relationship to the next level?

Cupid's Advice:

Dating someone new can be tricky. You have to learn everything about that one specific person – their likes and dislikes, what their goals are, etc. When your feelings for your partner begin to develop further, finding out if they feel the same way about you is another challenge all on its own. Cupid has some tips:

1. Communicate: How you're feeling about the status of your new relationship won't matter if you don't share them with your partner. When you're ready, talk to your honey about maybe taking it up a notch. The easier it is to communicate with your boo, the stronger the two of you will become as a couple.

2. Take your time: You don't need to rush how you feel, especially if you haven't been dating your partner for that long. Before you decide to fully commit to the relationship, take the time to figure out if what you're feeling is the real deal.

3. You just know: Sometimes you just know when you're ready to get serious with another person. You may be in love. If you can't stop thinking about your significant other, you miss them when they're away or you just simply can't imagine being with another person, then it might be time to take your relationship to the next level.
