What are some ways to prepare your relationship for your first child?

Cupid's Advice:

Pregnancy is a wonderful and beautiful thing, but it can also be stressful and challenging. There's no doubt the road to giving birth is going to be a bumpy ride, filled with a few unexpected turns and you may end up getting lost a few times along the way, but it's an amazing ride. Being in a relationships means sticking together and being there for each other, this is something you should keep in mind when preparing for your first child. Cupid has some advice on how to prepare your relationship for parenthood:

1. Stay calm: Yes, pregnancy is going to be stressful, especially if it is your first one, because it's new and unfamiliar. However, if you remind yourselves to stay calm and relax it will help keep things in perspective for the two of you. Remember, no good can come out of to worked up. Keep in mind if the mother-to-be is stressed it can be harmful to the baby and if her partner is also freaking out it will only make things worse for the mother and by extension the baby.

2. Read some books and take classes together: Doing pregnancy things together as a couple, will only make your relationship stronger. Go to weekly check-up appointments to the doctors together or sign yourselves up for a birthing class. Both first time parents have to put in equal effort to prepare for the new addition to their family, as it shows you are both in this together. It is also important to research and prepare for the birth of your child and parenthood, this is one of the best thing you can do for yourselves and your baby.
