What are some ways to avoid drama in your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

No matter how good your relationship is, it won't be easy all the time. It's okay for couples to fight sometimes, but if you're doing it all the time it's not healthy for your relationship. Which is why you have to find ways to avoid pointless arguments or fights, but how do you do that? Cupid has some advice on ways to avoid drama in your relationship:

1. Agree to disagree: Every one is their own person and has their own preferences, goals and wants. The truth is no couple will agree on everything, but just because you don't it doesn't mean you should start a fight about it. In a relationship you have to learn how to make compromises and sacrifices, especially if you want to avoid an argument.

2. Communicate: To avoid any misunderstanding you need to talk to each other. A lot of arguments or fights happen because people don't let someone know what's going on. With your partner don't just assume some they will understand or won't take it as a big deal, without talking to them first. A relationship is between two people, it's a partnership you have to keep that in mind when making decisions.

3. Accept all of them: Loving someone is about accepting and appreciating all of them, the good and the bad. Over stressing about all the things that bug you or get on your nervous about your significant other, will just increase the chances of adding unnecessary drama to your relationship. Focus on all the good and positive things about your lover.
