

Cupid's Weekly Round-Up: Love Is In the Air

 By Maria Darbenzio

Warmer weather is upon us, and as the flowers begin to bloom, so does romance. Take this time to focus on incorporating new and interesting things into your relationship. It can be as extravagant as a new vacation spot or as simple as showing support for a good cause. We pulled together these five articles from our partners to help give you some ideas:

1. Break away from reality: You don't have to be a college student to go on spring break. You and your partner deserve a vacay just as much as anyone else! There are plenty of romantic getaway spots that are perfect for kick-starting this spring with your sweetheart. (GalTime.com)

2. Inspire your love: Turn your typical movie night into a time to take notes and make a list of ways you can spice up your love life with the help of the classics. For instance, if you're a fan of Dirty Dancing, try incorporating some of those dance moves into your night – a simple yet fun way to add some excitement to your at-home date. (YourTango.com)

3. Get involved: Once it warms up, there are tons of options for walks and events that raise money for various organizations. Pick a cause that both you and your partner want to support and do it together. Not only will it give you a chance to bond, but you'll feel good about making a difference. 4. Control those allergies: No one wants to sniff and sneeze their way through a date. This spring, take control of your allergies and don't give them a chance to ruin the memories that you and your honey want to make. Take a look at how you can kiss those itchy eyes goodbye! (GalTime.com)

5. Express your love: As you're spring cleaning your house, leave little notes around for your partner, letting them know how much you love them. Don't live with your sweetheart? No problem! Sneak something sweet into their wallet or briefcase to make them smile when they find it during the day. Here's a list of other ways to share your love. (YourTango.com)
