By Sanetra Richards

Dating someone with a different career than yours is exactly what Scarlett Johansson has chosen to do. The Vanity Fair cover girl made it known things are much easier dating a non-actor. According to UsMagazine.com, the Captain America starlet discussed her relationship with French journalist Romain Dauriac, saying, "It is [easier], but it's more than that. We do different things. He's in the whole art-scene world. So it's nice, because we can enjoy each other's worlds, but we don't have our crazy conflicting schedules and all that other stuff to contend with." Johansson went onto joke about her beau: "And, you know, of course, actors, in general, they're obsessed with emotions. Although, [Romain is] French, so he's also probably overly into his emotions." The couple is expecting their first child in August.

How do you know when you've found 'the one'?

Cupid's Advice:

Stumbling upon love is one of the greatest feelings of all time. Admit it, your head is up in the clouds and you have uncontrollable stomach flutters. And if you have not experienced this yet, you are patiently waiting on the moment. However, knowing when you have met that special person that is the reason for your insane feelings always brings up the question "Is he/she the one?" Search no further, because Cupid has some advice:

1. You can be yourself: Finding someone who completely accepts you for just being you is similar to finding a needle in a haystack. Fortunately, when that person comes around it is hard to pass up. He or she will laugh at your corny and witty humor, accept your lifestyle, and so on. If you are never hesitant to say what is on your mind or do something completely out of the norm and they value it, chances are you are a step closer to recognizing 'the one.'

3. Mutual understanding: A confirmation usually comes about in certain situations when you and your partner would rather talk out a problem instead of arguing and going at each other's throats; even when conversations begin to evolve and begin to include "we" or "us" instead of "I" and "me" all of the time.

If you notice more growth individually and as a couple, guess what? You have probably found 'the one.'
