

Mary-Kate Olsen Talks Designing Her Wedding Dress

By Louisa Gonzales

Mary-Kate Olsen has a few ideas in mind of what she wants her wedding dress to be, but one thing for sure is it will be extra special. According to UsMagazine.com, the actress and fashion designer, 27, is planning her wedding with Olivier Sarkozy “one step at time,” and that includes finding or designing the perfect gown. Reportedly the former child star thinks it’s “a matter of getting five or six or making two or three” when it comes to her wedding dress, but says she has a lot of time before she stresses herself out about that and instead is focusing on designing a friend’s gown with twin sister Ashley Olsen. Olsen and Sarkozy have dated since 2012 and news of their engagement first came out in February of 2014.

What are some ways to personalize your wedding?

Cupid’s Advice:

Weddings are a special occasion, which is why a lot of people like to make it as festive and memorable as possible. There are a lot of ways to make your big day one for the record books, but it’s all about making it the perfect wedding for you and your special someone, after all it’s a day dedicated just to the two of you. Cupid has some advice on some ways to personalize your wedding:

1. Personalize your wedding program: Wedding programs have the power to create the tone of the wedding by letting people know what’s in store for them at the event. Make your wedding program extra special by personalizing to fit both of you, you can add pictures of the two of you from your engagement photos, baby photos, or even some fun selfless, or other creative things. Create a program that displays both your personalities and at the same time let guests get the theme of the wedding.
