Cupid's Advice

Usually, when you think of two people getting married you might picture a church, large wedding dress, the guests, a bridal party, the list could go on. And, most of us might be a bit taken aback when we hear that a certain couple's wedding didn't provide most of, if not all of, those specific elements. But, there can be some advantages to pulling off a secret wedding. Cupid has some tips:

1. The day is actually about YOU: Everyone says that weddings are all about the bride and groom. After all, it is THEIR day, right? Let's face it; most of the time the couple is trying to meet the needs of their guests, stay within budget, and wrapped up in accomplishing whatever it takes to please everyone else that the day becomes more about the guests than themselves.

2. Everything is just simpler: Because you don't have that crazy guest list to worry about or the expense of your dress, the wedding comes with practically a stress free guarantee. Wouldn't it feel great to cut down on all of that worrying, over thinking, and the extra centerpieces that you probably didn't need anyway?

3. Reduced Cost: Speaking of cutting down on extra centerpieces, unless you and your partner fly to an exotic location and spend hundreds of thousands to get the best private wedding venue, you probably won't be spending as much money on your secret wedding as you would if you had a traditional wedding. Who doesn't like to save an extra buck?
