Cupid’s Advice:

Losing that feeling you once had when you looked at your partner? Of course after being together for x amount of time, things begin to change. However, this does not mean they have to change for the worse. In fact, your relationship should be getting better over time. The butterflies should not fly away and that cheesy smile should not turn into a frown. But how do you exactly keep it all of this going when you have been with someone for so long? Cupid has some tips to help keep your relationship flame well-lit:

1. Reenact the first date: Remember that exciting moment when you were about to go on your first date with your significant other? You probably could not stop grinning and gushing about it afterwards. Well, you now have an opportunity to have that special day/night all over again! Turn one of your now regular dates into the moment you both really met.

2. Have goofy conversations: No matter how much your partner may think they know about you (and vice versa), there is always something slightly embarrassing or funny that they do not know. Have a night of sharing silly stories and secrets. Maybe tell them about the time you actually ate a mud pie (for example, of course).

3. Be cool: You are probably wondering what that exactly means. It means . . . do not be the fun police. If your partner wants to watch their all-time favorite movie with you, go along with it. If they want to go to a sporting event with you, go along with it. Although the words may not verbally come out, the message is clear as day – he or she wants to spend time with you, no matter what the activity may be. Remember, just go along with it!
