What are some unique ways to document your wedding experience?

Cupid's Advice:

Your wedding day is often a once in a lifetime experience, and you want to remember it for the rest of your life. Perhaps you want to show your kids or grandkids down the line. Cupid has some tips for documenting your wedding experience in unique ways:

1. Scrapbook, scrapbook, scrapbook: When you think “scrapbook,” you may envision your mom meticulously cutting out construction paper to glue to a page, but the past-time has come a long way in recent years. Check out your nearest hobby/craft store, and they’re bound to have a dedicated aisle for scrapbook supplies.

2. Hire a videographer: This is by no means a new concept, but a nice idea is to not only take video of the wedding ceremony, but also do guest interviews at the reception. Ask a random array of guest how they met the bride and groom and their wishes or predictions for the couple’s future.

3. Take an aerial shot: This may not be an option for some, but either hire an aerial photographer or convince a pilot friend to take some snapshots of your wedding or reception from the sky. Instruct your wedding party and guests to look up and put their hands up for a fun memory to last decades.
