

Penn Badgley and Domino Kirke Sport Jorts on NYC Date Night

By Laura Seaman

Penn Badgley and girlfriend Domino Kirke had a date night in New York City with both wearing casual jean shorts. The couple went for an evening walk around the city and grabbed a bite to eat while just sitting on a city bench. The two have been an item for a while, according to UsMagazine.com and have quite a few mutual friends.

What are some ways to influence your partner's style?

Cupid's Advice:

Nothing says 'cute couple' like coordinating outfits. As Badgley and Kirke have shown, even the most casual of matching outfits can look adorable. If you want your partner to start showing how stylish they can be, here are some tips to let them know without being obvious:

1. Go shopping with them and lend your opinion. If you're with your partner at the mall or at the store, point out pieces of clothing that you like and encourage them to try it on. Tell them how great certain clothes would look on them and encourage them to let you buy it for them, or to buy it themselves.

2. Give them clothes as gifts. Even if your partner isn't with you when you see that perfect shirt or amazing pair of pants, that doesn't mean you can't buy them. Just give it to them as a gift! Say you were thinking of them when you saw it, and you just had to get it for them. Just remember to keep the receipt!

3. Compliment the clothes you like. If something in your partner's wardrobe looks particularly great, let them know! Tell them how that shirt makes their eyes pop, or those pants fit them just the right way. Maybe even get your friends to tell them how amazing they look in that outfit.
