Is there a way to avoid being in love with two people?

Cupid's Advice:

Bella, a mortal with her heart being pulled in two separate directions, finds the life choices she makes can have devastating consequences. Cupid has some helpful pointers to help avoid a love triangle:

- 1. Focus on one: By staying involved with the love of your life, you have less of a chance of adding another love to the mix.
- 2. Discover what's missing: If you find your hearts tempted towards loving another, it might be because your current relationship has something lacking. Talk to your partner to figure out what's missing.
- 3. Love is what it is: If you've done everything in your power to prevent finding spark outside of your relationship, but still find yourself caught between two hearts, you need to make a decision for one or the other, and stick with it.

If you've ever been caught in a love triangle and have other ideas on how to avoid, prevent, or fix the situation, please share with Cupid! Comment below, and check out Eclipse to see how Bella deals with her romantic situation.
