

Kendall Jenner Says Parent's Split 'Sucked'

By Amanda Boyer

According to USMagazine.com, Kendall Jenner opened up to Nightline's Juju Chang recently about how fame affected her during her parents' split this past year, and how she's learned to deal with the media. She stated how "it sucked" and how she tries to think of it as not the worst thing that could have happened in her life. Although the split has affected her, she still has two stable and close bonds with both her parents and says nothing really has changed outside of her Dad moving.

What are some ways to keep your split from negatively affecting your children?

Cupid's Advice:

A divorce is never easy to deal with, but making it easier on your kids should always be the goal. Cupid has some tips:

1. Feelings: Someone's feelings are always going to get hurt in this situation. However, if you do not sway your kids to thinking one way or the other about your partner, they will be able to form their own opinion with less emotional connections involved.

2. Messengers: Do not treat your kids as messengers between you and your partner. Not putting them in the middle is best.

3. Listen: If they have a question or just want to talk about it, do not shut them out. Listen and be as open and honest as is appropriate.
