

Zac Efron and Vanessa Hudgens Split

Just like the end of the High School Musical saga, so ends the famous relationship that grew from it. After three years and multiple duets, Zac Efron and Vanessa Hudgens are calling it quits, according to Us Weekly. A source explains, saying, “They have been together for so long. It just ran its course. They are still talking and still friends. There’s no drama. No one cheated. They just grew up.” Some good things really do come to an end.

How do you tell when a relationship’s run it’s course?

Cupid’s Advice:

Sometimes, no matter how much you work at it, you can’t make a relationship work. Here’s how to tell when it’s time to call it quits and move on:

1. The butterflies are gone: If you never get excited to see your partner anymore, even after you've been apart for long period of time, it may be time to move on.

2. You don't have anything to talk about: If you find yourself searching for things to talk about or feel like the two of you have nothing in common anymore, then you may have outgrown each other.

3. You can visualize a future without him: If you can look ahead at your life and it doesn't include your current partner, it's probably a sign that it's just not meant to be.
