How close is too close when it comes to male-female friendship?

Cupid's Advice:

Though it's perfectly normal for married men and women to have friends of the opposite sex, certain situations cross into tricky territory:

1. Late-night phone calls: Aside from the necessary emergency, frequent phone calls or text messages – particularly when one or both parties are married – can lead to questions. If you're in bed with your partner and he or she is talking to someone else, that could spell P-R-O-B-L-E-M.

2. A constant third wheel: If your 'friend' starts showing up on dates or nights out with your partner, it could lead to an awkward situation. No one wants to be the third wheel; voluntary submission to this role must be for a reason.

3. Putting them first: The ultimate bad omen is when your partner habitually puts this other person first. When he or she is constantly chosen over you for lunch breaks or other events, it sends the message that your partner is moving away from you.
