

Jason Aldean and Brittany Kerr Spend Christmas Eve With His Kids

By Katie Gray

This is country superstar Jason Aldean's kind of party! Aldean recently celebrated Christmas Eve with his fiancée Brittany Kerr and his daughters, Keeley and Kendyl. They enjoyed the holidays at the performer's home outside of Nashville, Tennessee. It was their first holiday season together as a family, and the foursome shared a picture of their happy times on Instagram. According to UsMagazine.com, the "Dirt Road Anthem" singer said, "This year has been a good year for us. All of this... now [Brittany] can come out to shows and be normal. All the craziness around us has died down, and that's been the coolest thing about this year.”

How do you introduce your kids to your new partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Introducing your kids to your new partner can be a touchy situation. Cupid has some tips:

1. Evaluate everything: Introducing your new partner to your children is something that shouldn't be taken lightly. Consider your situation and your new relationship carefully before you take this next step. If you are really serious with your love interest and are committed, it's a good idea to be honest to your children.

2. Be somewhere neutral: When you initially introduce your children to your new significant other, it should be somewhere neutral. It should be done in a place where they feel safe and comfortable. Make sure you consider the childrens' ages first. Perhaps a zoo or amusement park is a good option, somewhere they can have fun after having a "grown-up" talk.

3. Keep it simple: When your children are first getting to know your new flame, make sure everything stays light. Try to limit the public affection in the very beginning and then slowly ease into it. Make sure you give your partner details about your kids and share their likes and dislikes. This makes the bonding process much easier.
