The Baldwins’ celebrity pregnancy news shows they’re ecstatic for their newest celebrity baby. How do you think you should prepare differently for a second child?

Cupid’s Advice:

With every addition to your family comes moments of excitement...and exhaustion. Still, after you welcome your first child, you should feel a bit more ready for future babies. So how do you prepare differently for a second child during pregnancy? Cupid has some ideas:

1. You have more hand-me-downs: Before your first baby was born, you were probably scouring the Internet for “must-haves” and stocking your home with all of the essentials: a crib, a changing table, a car seat, a stroller, clothes...the list goes on. Now, though, you should have plenty of hand-me-downs for your second child to use.

2. You don’t feel so stressed: No matter how many books you read or how many friends you grill, it’s hard to truly prepare for becoming a parent. Since you already have one child to call your own, you won’t feel quite so much worry as you get ready for your family to grow.

3. You have another child to focus on: Of course, you can’t forget about your oldest kid just because you have a baby on the way! This time around, you'll have a new set of worries: Will he like his baby sister? Will she feel neglected when her brother arrives? Try to make those last few months as a family of three extra special for your little one.
