Dating Expert Kailen Rosenberg Shares Relationship Advice

Rosenberg’s matchmaking services are elite and one-of-a-kind. She gets to a person’s core in order to find just the right person to ignite them. The mission of The Love Architects, who have clients ranging from your next-door neighbor to your favorite celebrity, is to help people authentically find love in whatever way, shape, or form they require. “We connect true soul mates who have been waiting forever to finally meet, and we help those who are married and struggling fall madly in love with each other either again – but in a healthier way or even for the very first time,” Rosenberg explains. “Every potential client starts with a deep, spiritual, therapeutic, get-to-know-your-true-self assessment.”

Those who participate in a “Love Design” session with the relationship expert are first asked to answer a few head-on questions. The matchmaker wants to know “who you are, who you believe you are, and why” before asking why you ready for love and what kind of partner you desire. Rosenberg continues, “From there, we get to the truth about what has kept them stuck, away from the love that has been waiting for them their entire lives, and then, we go get it!”

Once their clients have completed the first portion of The Love Architect’s process, it’s time to look for someone special! “Next, a personal love and life blueprint is used as a custom map to build, heal, tear down, or do whatever is necessary to bring the most amazing experience of love into our clients’ lives,” the love guru divulges.

Exclusive Celebrity Interview With “The Love Architect”

Before you find someone else to love though, the life coach urges you to love yourself. Sharing an important piece of relationship advice, she claims, “If we have no real clue who we are, we then spend our entire lives not really knowing our authentic selves and therefore ending up on a treadmill going nowhere but on a habitual track of unhappy, unsuccessful, unfulfilling relationships. That in turn changes our energy, which in turn affects the planet we live on.”

Of course, falling in love isn’t always smiles and butterflies; it can lead to heartbreak too. To those who are trying to move on after a rough split, Rosenberg offers the following dating advice: “Realize that your break-up was one of the greatest gifts you could have ever received. It was raw and real. It tugged at your ego and your heart and gave you the chance to see something in yourself you perhaps have never seen or weren’t ready to see until now.”

In our exclusive celebrity interview, she encourages you to take a look at your value and see what you have allowed into your world that shouldn’t be there. “Life is here to love on you, to teach you, and to bring you love, and it won’t allow you to be with the wrong person for too long,” she adds. “Your most recent break-up leaves you with a wonderful opening for the right person to finally come in.”

With the weather finally warming up, it’s a popular time of year for “spring flings” – which are one way to get over a broken heart. You may be surprised that Rosenberg says to go for it! “There is no such thing as a failed relationship. Instead, look at it as an in-depth experience with yet another ‘love teacher’ who showed up to teach you about you and about love,” she insists. “So be smart and be a great student of love. Seek to find what more there is to learn about yourself when it comes to love, where your ‘blocks’ still might be, and where you have clearly grown.”

Real love comes in all shapes and sizes, which is why the celebrity matchmaker has partnered with Betsy Broyles Arnold to recognize Alzheimer’s disease caregivers. “I am honored to have been given the opportunity to join forces on such an important and inspiring campaign. As you know, my entire life-work focuses on teaching and bringing genuine love to this world, and we all know that love is far more than hearts and chocolates, so it couldn’t have been a better fit,” she says of the Unconditional Love campaign. “We all want to understand love, and we all know that there will come a time in our lives when love is challenged. Those truly forgotten, unrecognized heroes – the caregivers of those with Alzheimer’s – give every bit of themselves, and that is when love becomes unconditional.”

Honoring these caregivers can be as simple as sending a card to show that you appreciate their work or offering to clean their home or cook them dinner. As Rosenberg explains, “They know in their hearts they have no choice but to be strong for their loved ones, to be present, and to love unconditionally in ways they never thought possible. We need to recognize them for their efforts.”
