Cupid's Advice:

Having kids is a big step to take in relationships and love; it's an emotional decision filled with excitement and fear. If you and your partner aren't on the same page of when or if to have kids, this decision can be harder to make. Here are Cupid's relationship advice for couples who have different opinions about kids:

1. Respect their decision: There are some things about your partner that you can't change, either it's something as small as them snoring at night or something as big as not wanting to have kids. Either way you should respect their decision rather than forcing them to change.

2. Find a middle ground: If you and your mate both want kids, but disagree on when it should happen, try to find a compromise. If you want kids now while your beau wants to wait four years, try to agree on two years so that you both feel ready.

3. Patience: Sometimes your partner may not know if he or she wants kids at all- and that's okay! Allow them time to figure out what they want and prepare yourself for either answer.
