A celebrity love life sometimes deals with the same issues as a non-celebrity relationship and love life. Recently, George Clooney admitted on Mario Lopez's Extra that his obsession with watching sports "kills" his celebrity wife, Amal Alamuddin. While she isn't a fan of all of the sports he watches, he is a fan of her sense of fashion. The celebrity couple stunned at the MET Gala in New York. According to UsMagazine.com, "Talking about the couple's appearance at Monday, May 4's Met Gala, the proud husband gushed about his wife's passion for fashion."

Even this celebrity love life experiences the occasional annoyance! What are some ways to cope with your partner's differences?

Cupid's Advice:

There's no getting around differences between you and your partner in your relationship. Cupid has some ways to deal:

1. Be open: In life, it's important to be open to things that don't necessarily suit your interests. You will get more enjoyment out of life and have better experiences if you are open minded to change and to trying new things! Be understanding, because it's something that is important to your partner.

3. Combine both interests: Being in a relationship and love means combining the both of everything in your worlds. The same thing goes for when you get married. What is yours becomes theirs, too, and what is theirs becomes yours as well. Take this into account for activities and interests that you each have. Find a balance between doing what each of you enjoys!
