A lawsuit for $10 million has been filed against Gordon. Within the lawsuit,

Brown allegedly said that Gordon was “not the man she thought he was.”

This celebrity love may have been fizzling all along. How do you know if your partner is in your relationship for the right reasons?

Cupid's Advice:

Problems arise in many relationships as it did for this famous couple. One person may discover that the other was in the relationship for money, loneliness, or a number of other reasons. To avoid this issue, Cupid has some advice for how you can tell if your partner is in your relationship for the right reasons:

1. Money doesn't phase them: Whether you're dealing with financial issues or have some extra money in the bank, their attitude toward you doesn't change along with your finances. A person who is in your relationship for love won't care about how much money you make.

2. They show you they love you: Words don't mean much without strong action to back them up. So if your partner says that they love you all the time but their actions don't match, their words may not be very true. Look for the partner that says and shows that they love you, whether it's cooking your favorite meal after a hard day or surprising you with a thoughtful visit at your job.

3. There are no secrets: Honestly is the best policy in life and relationships. If you find that your significant other is the secretive type – i.e. acting defensive if you ask him questions about certain things, he may not be the right one for you. Confront your partner about their dishonesty.
