Cupid's Advice:

As the saying goes, "breaking up is hard to do." But sometimes the thing that's harder than breaking up is seeing your ex moving on from your relationship. As this former famous couple has proven, it does not always have to be a painful experience. Here are some of Cupid's tips for coping with your ex's new relationship:

1. Find a new hobby: Whether it's crossfit training, travelling or cooking, finding a new hobby to take up your time can be productive in helping you to cope with an ex's relationship. In addition to participating in a cool new activity, hobbies can also help you to move on as well.

2. Stay away from social media: Stalking your ex's every move online can be a painful experience when every post and picture is about how happy they are with their new beau. Instead of focusing on their happiness, log off of those social media sites and focus on your own happiness and well-being.

3. Start dating: If you feel ready to move on as well, get back out in the dating game. Even if you're not looking for a serious relationship, going out on dates with different kinds of people can be a really fun experience. So take a chance and put yourself out there!
