

Chris Brown Files Documents to Establish Paternity of Celebrity Daughter

By Jenna Bagcal

There has been no shortage of drama in Chris Brown's life recently. In celebrity news from UsMagazine.com Brown has gone to court in Houston to establish paternity of his celebrity daughter, Royalty. The news that Brown is a father happened last year when the singer was in a relationship with his celebrity ex, Karrueche Tran. In recent reports, the woman with whom Brown fathered Royalty, Nia Guzman, has demanded that the singer pay $15,000 a month in child support. Guzman has reportedly denied Brown the legal rights to see his child.

Let's hope Chris Brown and his baby mama keep their celebrity daughter out of the drama! What are some ways to keep your child from seeing relationship drama?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes dramatic situations and arguments will arise in relationships, but there is a time and place for them to occur. Here are Cupid's tips for how to keep your child away from the relationship drama:

1. Keep the fighting away from your child: Arguments and relationship drama are not appropriate for children to see, especially when they are very young. Keep the arguments and heated discussions behind closed doors where only you and your partner can hear them.

2. Don't make them choose sides: Even if you and your partner are angry with each other, making your child choose which parent they prefer is unfair to your child and your partner. Let your child know that both you and your partner love them despite the ongoing drama.

3. Talk to your child: Despite your best efforts to keep arguments and drama away from your children, they might still find out that things are not completely harmonious at home. If you find that your child is being negatively affected by the drama, talk to them to find out their feelings on the situation.
