Cupid's Advice:

Getting married is the most exciting and frightening time of your life, so it's natural to feel a little uneasy about the future. You want to keep parts of your previous single life while still accepting this new period of marital bliss. Cupid is here to help you find your balance in married life:

1. Comfort items: Just because you're married doesn't mean you need to toss all aspects of your old life. You want to save items that remind you you're still an individual. For example, keep pictures with your friends on the wall to remind you to still cherish them.

2. Have your own space: Whether it's the park across the street or a corner in a room, designate an area that is completely yours. It will come as a relief to have these spaces of solitude reserved for when you're feeling overwhelmed. You can seclude yourself from marital stress here with a book, coffee or a nap.

3. Keep your normal routine: If you're married to the right person, you shouldn't have to completely reorganize your day around them. Still go to your yoga class in the morning if it makes you happy, and take a cue from Jennifer Aniston. The newlywed loves acting and even though she just got married she didn't let that stop her from pursuing her passion.
