Cupid's Advice:

When you're single, don't remain bitter about love or seeing other couples happy. Rather, use this time to build up yourself and take advantage of all the opportunities life has to offer. While not always obvious, there are a lot of positives to being single and Cupid is here to demonstrate some of them for you:

- 1. Be more productive: You don't need to worry about cooking dinner, cleaning, attending events or shopping for your partner so you have a lot of extra time that can be devoted to work, hitting the gym, or starting a new club. Use this time wisely to discover new interests or skills.

2. More well rested: Research shows that sleeping two people in a bed can be less comfortable and can lead to more restlessness during the night. Also, without a partner you have more time to get a full night's sleep. More rest results in a stronger, more brain-powered you.

3. Manage money better: A common overlooked downside of being in a relationship is all of the money you have to spend on dates, transportation and extra food. Being single allows you to question better what's worth spending money on and what's not.
