Cupid's Advice:

Just when you think things can't get any better, BOOM, you're engaged! As exciting and overwhelming as it can be, marriage is a great goal to strive for. Cupid has some advice on ways to know if you are ready for marriage:

1. Slow and steady: Knowing if you are ready for marriage takes sitting down and examining your relationship. Rushing through things can eventually hurt your relationship. Remember, slow and steady wins the race. Take your time and sort things out. No relationship is perfect, but if you have a strong foundation, you may just be ready for marriage. Make sure you are taking enough time to think things over. While you don't want to have the longest engagement like Roy and Pam from The Office, make sure enough time is given to get things in order.

3. Right is right: Make sure you are getting married for the right reasons. Marriage is a sacred union and is something to be taken seriously. You are not only bounded together by faith, but by law. Those two words represent a lifetime commitment. If you are in it for the right reasons, then why not?

Fashion Advice: 5 Outfit Ideas for Labor Day Weekend

By

Rhodesia Williams

Labor Day is the last hoorah of the summer. With school back in session soon or returning back to work Tuesday morning, it's only right to go all out! Whether you are hanging out on the beach or enjoying a nice BBQ, end the summer with a bang! Enjoy some fashion advice to make your outfit shine brighter than the fireworks.

Labor Day Weekend is the last event of the summer. What are some outfit ideas for the infamous weekend?

Labor Day is the last holiday of the summer so you have to make it count. While sometimes weather can be hard to predict, there is always an outfit for the occasion. Everyone knows the saying, "Don't wear white after Labor Day." Whether you believe it or not, including white in your outfit will fit perfectly. Here are some outfit ideas for the big weekend:

1. Calm and casual: As hot as it can be, you may not feel like getting super dressed up. That's okay because keeping things calm and casual always works. A cute skirt with a tank top can be just enough especially if you accessorize. Adding jewelry to your outfit will not only make your outfit pop, but you will definitely shine like a diamond.

2. Dress to the 'T': Similar to the calm and casual look, don't be afraid to wear a T-shirt. Buying a cute T-shirt or even a polo will be just right for Labor Day. This look works if you are attending a BBQ with outdoor activities. Its quick, simple, and can still be stylish. You can even use this if you plan on changing clothes. There's nothing wrong with an outfit change.

3. Maxi madness: It goes without saying that maxi dresses are the simplest outfit idea. Finding a cute Labor Day maxi dress won't be too hard. The traditional red, white, and blue colors for Labor Day gives you a lot to work with. Printed or striped dresses are typical; however, there are many ways to get creative. For example, a red maxi dress with jewelry or shoes to match will do wonders. The possibilities are endless!

4. Summer dress: Not everyone is into maxi dresses which is totally fine. Finding a cute summer dress will be just fine. Although red, white and blue are traditional Labor Day colors, it doesn't mean you have to wear them. Finding a cute summer dress that fits your style is always a good idea. Not only will you stand out, but it shows that you decided to be different. Remember, standing out doesn't mean you are standing alone. Even if you are the only one not wearing red, white and blue, just know you did what others were scared to do.

5. Nice top: Finding a cute top to wear is a good idea. If you happen to be in a rush or received an invite to a gathering short notice, your best option is to find a cute top. Sometimes it's frustrating finding a full outfit, so just focus on the important part – the top. What will catch people's eye is the top you pick. Either going traditional or not, make sure it's you. Comfort is always a must!

someone new?

Cupid's Advice:

In some cases it's hard to see an ex with someone new. As hard as it can be, you have to keep it together. Cupid has some advice on how to handle jealousy when your ex moves on with someone new:

1. Try not to look!: With social media taking over, it can be hard to avoid finding out about an ex and their new partner. As much as you may have the urge to lurk, don't look. Whether you broke up on good or bad terms, it will hurt the same when you see it. As long as you keep lurking, the more upset and angry you will get. Don't do it to yourself.

2. "I don't want to hear it": While your friends may think they are doing you a favor by telling you your ex's every move, you have to tell them that you don't want to hear it. Constantly hearing about your ex won't help you heal and move on. A good idea is to have a conversation with the people closest to you and have a mutual agreement on not bringing up your ex. This combined with fun with your loved ones will help you have a smooth and healthy healing.

3. It's not a competition: When seeing your ex with someone else, your first instinct may be to go out there and just jump into something with someone else. Bad idea! Not only will you hurt someone else, it will only hurt you more. Keep calm and work through it. Sometimes it gets worse before it gets better.

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes space is needed in a relationship, but too much space can hurt your relationship. Cupid has some advice on some things to consider before having an on-again-off-again relationship:

1. Time: Having a permanent on and off relationship is never healthy. You can't spend most of your time broken up because it poses the question of why you are even together in the first place. When deciding to break up, make sure you pay attention to how much time you are spending apart. Remember, when you are apart, you are teaching each other how to live without each other. Be careful; you might end up falling in love with the single life instead of your partner.

Related Link: Dating Advice: 4 Signs Your Partner Is the Right One for You

2. Respect: If you and your partner anticipate getting back together, make sure you both respect your relationship. A break is not meant for one or both of you to be out partying and hooking up with other people. Remember, a break is because things aren't working and if you are considering getting back together, then you need to spend the time working on yourself. Sometimes space is needed, but don't do anything you will regret.

Related Link: Dating Advice: How to Stop Self-Sabotaging in Love

Compromise: Being in an on and off relationship is hard enough, but remember to work through the issues. Relationships are two sided so as you're working through things, keep in mind that sometimes you have to negotiate. While you shouldn't have to put up with disrespect or cheating, simple things like communication and quality time problems can easily be solved.

1. Emotional support: More than anything else, emotional support is what's needed at such a sensitive time. For whatever reason, it wasn't meant to be at this time but it's nobody's fault. According to UsMagazine.com, although the celebrity couple share three children together, the celebrity break up comes after 13 years of marriage. Based on irreconcilable differences, the pair are calling it quits.

Real Housewives* fans are upset by this split for sure. What are some ways to work on your marriage before calling it quits?

Cupid's Advice:

It takes hard work to get to the point of marriage and even more work to maintain it. Don't be discouraged if you are going through a rough patch. Cupid has some advice on ways to work on your marriage before calling it quits:

1. Communication: One of the easiest ways to fix your marriage is communicating. If communication is part of the problem, it will take both of you to fix it. Expressing yourselves in a calm, respectable manner will not only fix the issue, but strengthen your relationship. Maybe sitting down over dinner or going for walks will help to set the mood and tone of the conversation. Being respectful is very important, and make sure you are both listening. Nobody wants to be seen and not heard, so respect your partner and really pay attention to what is being said.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: Don't Let Distance and Lifestyle End Your Relationship

2. Take time apart: While this may sound drastic, space can help your relationship tremendously. That doesn't necessarily mean going out and dating other people, but maybe staying at a family member's house or a close friend's house for a week is a good idea. Time away will make you miss your partner, and sometimes that's what relationships need. The space will also give you time to think and regroup. That being said, don't let too much time pass. When you leave someone for a long period of time, you teach them how to live without you. If you want to work things out, agree on the terms and conditions, and take it from there.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: How to Stay Confident in a Long-Term Relationship

3. Quality time: Though it's the opposite of taking time apart, maybe the issue is that you aren't spending enough time together. While there can be various factors playing into why you aren't spending time together, it is important to come together and discuss the issue. You have worked this hard to get to marriage, so don't throw it away over something so silly. Sometimes you have to reignite the spark, so it's time to get the lighter. This is not a one-sided commitment. As a couple, you have to come together and make time for each other. Start simple with a date night or a surprise homemade dinner; you'll be surprised how the little things can make the biggest impact.

This celebrity divorce hit Blake Shelton hard. What are some steps you can take to recover after a tough break-up?

Cupid's Advice:

Break ups are one of the hardest things you go through in life. Through the pain, you have to find the light even if it takes some time. Cupid has some advice on how to recover after a tough break up:

1. Cry: Never ever be ashamed to cry! Man or woman, everybody has a heart and can have it broken. The best self therapy is to just let it all out. Whether it happens when you are in front of people or when you are alone, you will feel so much better. Holding back the tears won't help you because you aren't expressing how you feel. Building up emotions isn't healthy and can cause issues later.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: Working Through Your Heartbreak

2. Talk: Talking is another therapeutic way to help recover from a tough break up. Speak about what happened. It will only help ease the pain away. Say you accidentally spilled your coffee. Initially, in anger you say, "Darn! I spilled my coffee." As the day goes on, you soon lose the anger and when you explain what happened, the anger is no longer there. Speaking on what happened and repeating things somehow helps put your mind and in this case, your heart at ease.

Come one and all! We're well into summer, and bandeau tops are always a fashion trend for this season. Originally used as part of a bathing suit, bandeaus became a part of everyday fashion back in the 70's and have made a recurrence today. Similar to a tube top, the bandeau is a shorter version, exposing the midsection, and is also known as a crop top.

These tops are handy during the summer, especially when going to the beach. The universal piece of clothing comes in many shapes and colors and can be worn with anything.

From bathing suit to casual wear, bandeau tops have evolved in the fashion world. Here are some ways to take this fashion trend and make it your own:

Using the bandeau as an accessory helps when you don't want to wear it by itself or when weather plays a factor in your outfit. The diversity of the bandeau allows for you to layer up if needed. 1. It's the little things: In this case, it's the little things that can take you a long way. Pointing out these things the two of you do for each other may make your friend think. Maybe, you are stuck doing a double shift and your friend brings food without you asking. While that is being a good friend, it is also thoughtful and shows that your friend went out of their way to make sure you were okay. Reminding each other of the little things could help the lightbulb go off.

Celebrity Break-Up: Jillian Michaels & Heidi Rhoades Split After 9 Years Together

By

Rhodesia Williams

In celebrity news, celebrity couple Jillian Michaels and Heidi Rhoades have called it quits. According to UsMagazine.com, the celebrity relationship has come to an end after nine years.

Although the two share two children together, the couple expressed that the celebrity break up was mutual. “We’ve found we’re better as friends and parents living apart than staying together.”

This celebrity break-up comes after a long-term relationship. How do you decide whether to call it quits on a long-term relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

Sometimes it’s hard breaking up, especially when you have been together for a very long time. As hard as it can be, you have to do what is best for the relationship. You can’t let time play a factor in this decision. Cupid has some advice on how to decide if you should call it quits on a long-term relationship:

1. Foundation: Without a strong foundation, your relationship won’t be able to weather any storm. Coming up with a decision like ending a long-term relationship is hard, but an excellent point to start is at the core. Do you and your partner have the basics down? Just in case you aren’t sure what the basics are, we are talking about trust, communication, understanding, and compatibility. When there are problems, it usually stems from one of those components. Think about it.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: How to Stay Confident in a Long-Term Relationship

2. Future: Think about your future. Granted, we never know what can happen in the future, but knowing your partner, you can take a pretty good guess. Have you come to an understanding about the things you both want? Children? Marriage? Housing? Pets? You have to think about all of the things that you want. Coming together and discussing the future will help, but if ultimately you are having difficulty coming to an understanding, then maybe you have to rethink your future with your partner.

Related Link: Expert Dating Advice: Beware of These Kinds of Relationships

3. Feelings: You may have a strong foundation, but your feelings do matter. If you have a gut feeling about something or something just doesn't feel right, maybe you should hold off. The saying, "what's done in the dark will always come to the light" couldn't be more true. Listen to your intuition! While we aren't talking about cold feet, there may be something lingering that is bothering you. Pay attention, and give it time. When the feelings are right, you won't have to second guess anything.

In this celebrity news, there may be another engagement soon! What are some ways to know you’re ready for marriage?

Cupid's Advice:

After dating your partner for a while, you start to hear those wedding bells. How do you know when you are ready for the big "I do?" Cupid has some advice:

1. Communication: Communication is very important. However, Cupid isn't referring to the selective hearing we all fall victim to. Good communication is one of the biggest foundations of a relationship. Expressing yourself and having healthy conversations or arguments is important. Like the relationship as a whole, communication is a two-way street, and if you feel like your communication is one way, then work on it. Better to work out the kinks now than later.

Related Link: Dating Advice: 4 Signs Your Partner Is the Right One for You

2. Happiness: If you aren't happy, don't get married. Too many times you see people getting married for every reason under the sun except for truly being happy together. Why spend the rest of your life unhappy? Marry someone who continuously makes you laugh and smile, someone whose company you enjoy; whether you are hiding out at home with junk food and Netflix or having a little too much fun at Dave & Busters. Your happiness, as well as your partner's, matters.

3. Commitment: Well, without this you have nothing. Are you guys ready to commit yourselves to each other for the rest of your lives? Cheating and other inappropriate activities are not right and something nobody has to put up with. If there are issues within this aspect of the relationship, you aren't ready. That's not to say things can't get better, but this is definitely something to work on. There is no rush when it comes to marriage.

Cupid's Advice:

When starting a new chapter in your life, make sure you completely finished the previous one. Cupid has some advice on ways to keep your ex from affecting your new relationship.

1. Distance: Make sure you distance yourself from your old life. Sometimes exes have a hard time moving on and if you are constantly in contact with an ex, your new relationship could begin with a rocky start. Bringing your new flame to the restaurant where you and your ex enjoyed your favorite meal could stir up trouble. If you run into your ex, what do you do? It isn't worth the risk. New relationship, new beginnings.

2. Cut communication: Cutting off communication with an ex is an effective measure to take when beginning a new relationship. Whether you are cool with your ex or absolutely cannot stand each other, when starting a new relationship it's never safe to have your ex talk to your new flame. You are better off cutting off communication and moving forward. Some ex's are like guard dogs, they may look friendly but they won't let anyone get too close.

1. Happiness: Are you happy? Think about your relationship from the beginning to now. Forget about wanting to get married or the pressure from others to get married. 1. Respect: Respect is the most important part of this whole situation. You and your ex called it quits, and it's important to respect the fact that it takes time to move forward. Not only should you respect this, but your new partner should as well. Parading your new partner around can be hurtful and can cause unwanted drama. Related Link: Relationship Advice: Tales of the Other Woman

2. Distance: Distance can actually very much help the situation. We're not saying that you and your new flame cannot enjoy going out, but maybe for a while avoid going to places that you and your ex used to frequent. Keeping your new relationship separated from the old is one of the best things you can do. Keeping a respectful distance helps to build a healthy relationship for all parties involved.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: How to Overcome Dating Burnout

3. Time: Time is an important part of the healing process as well. To “soften the blow,” allow your ex to have some time to heal. They say time heal all wounds, so, in this case, give your ex time to adjust to the fact that you are moving on. Just think about if the shoe were on the other foot.
