

Beauty Tips: Top 5 Coolsculpting Questions Answered

Anyone looking to tone their body in certain areas, without having to go through painful procedures and long recovery times have access to Coolsculpting. It's a revolution in body sculpting, thanks to how it uses your body's natural abilities to trim off the excess fat that clumped up in areas like the stomach, thighs, hips, even arms and back. And this is only a few of the many other areas you can treat with Coolsculpting.

But as amazing as this sounds, there are still many things a lot of people don't know about Coolsculpting, that they should in order to fully understand what they're signing up for. With the help of Skinly Aesthetics, a New York based cosmetic clinic and medical spa which offer their treatment of Skinly Aesthetics to countless local clients, we can answer the most widely-asked questions that people have about the treatment.

1. How does it work?

Fat cells are weak to cold temperatures. When exposed to them long enough, they commit what is essentially cell suicide and get absorbed by the body. This is a completely natural process and the only artificial stimulation it gets comes from the cold vacuums which are placed on the part of the body being treated.

For 40 to 50 minutes, depending on what part of the body you'll be treating, cold air is going to be pumped against the skin, causing the cells to begin their apoptosis process, destroy themselves and get absorbed by the rest of the body. This will take place over several months, as your body slowly but surely tones and sculpts itself without any injections, cuts or incision being required.

2. What side effects does it have?

As with any other cosmetic treatment, people want to know about the side effects and what they'll have to endure following the procedure. Luckily, Coolsculpting has one of the easiest and most painless side effects. Immediately after the procedure is over, you'll feel a little aching in the treated area as well as this little itching sensation.

Have you ever walked into a hot room after being out in the cold for a while and your hands begin to hurt? This is essentially the same phenomenon, where your skin isn't used to the temperature yet and is slowly adapting to the new heat. It goes away after a while and you should come back to normal in no time. As far as other side effects go, there have been reports of redness, which again, is completely normal a couple hours after the treatment and the dryness of the skin. But both of these are very easy to take care of with simple household skin care products.

And within the first day, these side effects should go away and you can back to normal without any complicated recovery procedures or techniques.

3. Does the procedure hurt?

Another big worry for a lot of people, maybe even a putoff, is when cosmetic treatments are painful, which they sometimes can be, even if for just a little. But Coolsculpting by its very nature is painless.

Our skin is able to adapt to any temperature, including the cold. So, after a couple minutes of being exposed to the cold temperatures, it'll get used to the sensation and go numb. You'll essentially only feel the cold for the first 7 to 10 minutes and after that, you'll feel absolutely nothing. Other than numbness, of course.

4. What parts of the body can it treat?

With Coolsculpting, you can treat a wide variety of areas on your body. Most popular areas of treatment are the stomach, thighs, hips and even under the chin. But thanks to how versatile the Coolsculpting treatment and its equipment are, you can also treat the arms, back, legs, anything you think of that may have excess fat built up there.

Your best bet on deciding what you want to treat depends greatly on your own personal opinion and what's been bothering you about your body. Maybe you have slightly bigger thighs that you want to see more toned. Or maybe even it's a double chin that you see in every selfie you take. Coolsculpting works wonders on all these areas and within a couple months, you'll have exactly the kind of toned body you've always hoped for.

5. Is it really expensive?

Any cosmetic treatment, considering how generally they are very complex and require a lot of qualifications in order to perform, are more expensive than something you're comfortable paying for on a monthly basis. But specifically for Coolsculpting, it's hard to give one specific answer, when everyone has different needs and expectations.

The price will depend on what or where you're treating and how much of it. So, it's hard to give even a rough estimate. The best way for you to find out is by consulting a clinic and asking their specialists, who can give you an accurate pricing model. For example, many of Skinly Aesthetics' clients who go in for the clinic's Coolsculpting NYC treatment plan often call beforehand and make sure they understand exactly how much it's going to cost.

And you need to make sure to do that yourself. Don't take any unnecessary guesses. Clinics love to give you all the information you need.

Good to Be Curious

Even if you're not planning on getting Coolsculpting anytime soon, it's still pretty interesting hearing about just how it works, what it does and what you can expect from it. It's a perfect addition to cosmetic clinics as a treatment, since it offers an easy solution to people who don't have the time, energy or money to tone specific parts of their body, without using any questionable methods.

It's broken new ground in terms of body sculpting and with every new development in its effectiveness, you can expect Coolsculpting to only get better and better over time.

Beauty Trend: How to Take Care of Your Skin in Cold

Weather

By Nicole Maher

While winter is a wonderful time of year, it certainly does not do wonders for your skin. Whether it's the harsh winds outside or the dry air coming from indoor heating, your skin will likely be in need of some extra nurturing this winter. By incorporating some of the following beauty trends into your skincare routine, you will be ready to take on the winter months with skin just as hydrated as it is in the summer.

Check out these five beauty trends for taking care of your skin during the colder months.

1. Inspect your skin daily: The best way to prevent yourself from experiencing major dry skin or irritation this winter is to inspect your skin regularly. While patches will undoubtedly appear in areas after spending a lot of time outside or in an overly-heated room, monitoring them before they get too big will help with treatment. While your face may be your main focus for treating dry skin this winter, be sure to keep an eye on your legs and stomach as well as these places are also susceptible to experiencing dryness.

Related Link: Beauty Tips: 2020 Skincare Trends

2. Prioritize moisturization: No matter your skin type, having a moisturizer in your skincare routine this winter is a must. While you may be tempted to switch to a heavier moisturizer during the winter, it is actually more beneficial to continue using one that works best for your skin type. If you are extremely prone to dry areas during colder weather, talk to a dermatologist about using a medicated moisturizer. If you often experience breakouts or acne from certain products, try finding a moisturizer that does not have an oil-based formula.

Related Link: Beauty Advice: Overnight Beauty Tips to Wake Up Looking Your Best

3. Keep wearing sunscreen: Sunscreen is the secret to healthy skin all year long. It may not seem like a priority in the winter because you aren't spending your afternoons in the hot sun, but the colder temperatures do not make the strength of the sun any weaker. If you live in an area that experiences snowfall, the reflection of the sun on the snow can also lead to harsh sunburns. Be sure to keep a sunscreen-infused moisturizer or makeup primer in your routine this winter to protect your skin just as you would do during the summer months!

4. Watch out for rosy tint: While a rosy tint on your cheeks might be considered cute during the winter, it is actually a sign that your skin needs some help. The pinkish color that appears on your skin is a sign that it is drying out and may eventually lead to dry patches. If your skin begins to turn a darker shade of pink or red, it may be a sign that you have broken capillaries under your skin, which are usually caused by heavy winds. If this is the case, use the beauty trend of natural facemasks, with ingredients such as honey and avocado, to treat the damaged areas.

5. Don't neglect your lips: One of the most crucial areas of your skin and face to pay attention to this winter is your lips. While having chapped lips are some point is likely inevitable in a colder climate, being sure to treat them and leave the house prepared is a must. Putting a hydrator on your lips before leaving the house in the morning or going to bed at night is a good way of preventing any major dryness. It is also important to carry around some kind of chapstick with you throughout the day to apply as your lips get dryer. Keep you lips hydrated will prevent them from cracking or splitting and causing irritation with the surrounding skin on your face as well.

Beauty Advice: 6 Last Minute Holiday Gift Ideas for a Beauty Guru

 By Nicole Maher

The holidays are just days away, and if you are just now realizing you've forgotten a gift for someone, you are probably not alone. With the craziness of the holiday season, it's normal for everyone to be scrambling for last minute gifts. Beauty products are always a great option for last minute gifts as the options are endless and beauty trends are constantly changing. Check out the beauty advice below to find the perfect gift for the beauty guru in your life.

Use this beauty advice to find the perfect last minute holiday gift for your beauty guru friend.

1. Makeup brush set: Makeup brands and celebrities are constantly coming out with new brush sets, especially around the holiday season. This makes makeup brushes the perfect gift to give the beauty guru in your life. For a larger gift, purchase the complete set of brushes. If you are looking for a smaller option, many brush sets can be broken down into different areas of the face, such as eyeshadow brushes or blush and bronzer brush sets.

2. Facial moisturizer: Many people have a relatively consistent skincare routine, so it can be challenging to buy someone a facial cleanser. However, moisturizers are a good alternative as they are likely to be compatible with more skin types. Search the beauty market for new facial moisturizers that offer different benefits, such as targeting specific dry areas or doubling as a primer for makeup. Moisturizers with some form of sun protection are also great options for your beauty loving friend.

3. Hair styling tool: If you are looking for a gift that is a little bit larger, hair styling tools are a great option. With so many new hair tools hitting the market each year, you should have no problem finding one that your beauty guru friend doesn't own yet. Classic styling tools include straighteners and curling irons, which can be useful if your friend is in need of a replacement. Less conventional options include blow-out brushes and styling attachments for hair dryers, which could help your friend find their new favorite hair style!

4. Setting spray: It can be challenging to buy someone a makeup product if you are unsure of their exact skin tone in terms of foundations and concealers. This makes the gift of setting spray a great option for someone who loves makeup, as it does not need to match any specific shades. It is also something that they may use more frequently than some other makeup-centered gifts. Use this beauty advice to buy your friend a refill of their go-to setting spray, or give them the opportunity to try out a new product by gifting them with one they've never tried.

5. Body scrub: Another great option for the beauty guru in your life is the gift of a body scrub. This is another product that does not require any color matching, and is typically compatible with most skin types. Go for floral smelling body scrub if your friend is a big fan of scented products, or go for something more natural if they are into clean, chemical-free products. Like many of the other beauty advice gift ideas, body scrubs come in a variety of sizes and prices, making it a good option for any budget this holiday season.

6. Manicure set: Whether as a hobby or way of saving some extra money, many people have been opting to give themselves at-home manicures rather than heading to the nail salon every few weeks. If you know someone who always has their nails freshly painted, an at-home manicure set could be a great gift option. For a smaller gift, go for a set that includes the basic manicure tools and a few nail polish colors. For a larger option, go for a nail dryer or UV-gel manicure light to help them perfect their new hobby!

Beauty Advice: Everything You

Need to Know About Exfoliating Your Skin

By Carly Silva

Exfoliation is a great option to deep-clean your skin, especially if you struggle from clogged pores or acne. While it is not necessary for every type of skin, it is a great step to implement into your routine if you are looking to clear out your pores and get soft and glowing skin. Exfoliation can have plenty of benefits, but it's important that it's done in the right way to reap the total benefit and avoid doing any unnecessary damage to the skin.

If you're in need of some new beauty advice, here is everything you need to know about proper exfoliating that will help make your skin soft and glowing:

1. Figure out which type works best for you: There are two different types of exfoliation: mechanical and chemical. While mechanical is far more popular, chemical exfoliations tend to be more gentle and safer for the skin. Mechanical exfoliants usually consist of a wash-off scrubs with some sort of granular ingredient that buffs against the skin to rid dead skin and get deep into the pores. Chemical exfoliants, often in the form leave-on treatments, use exfoliant ingredients, such as salicylic acid or glycolic acid to sink deep into the pores to clean out dirt and oil while ridding dead skin cells. Before you start using an exfoliant, decide what type of exfoliation is best for your skin and your personal routine.

Related Link: Beauty Advice: Overnight Beauty Tips to Wake Up Looking Your Best

2. Choose the right products: Another important part of starting an exfoliant is to make sure you are using the right product. If you're using a mechanical exfoliant, avoid using products with damaging exfoliating ingredients, such as walnut shells. These can be super rough on the skin and lead to microtearing. Instead, look for products with gentle exfoliants, or even consider using a soft exfoliating brush instead of a scrub. If you're looking to try chemical exfoliating, make sure that the ingredients are cohesive with the other products in your routine, and that you're choosing acids that won't be too strong for your skin.

Related Link: Beauty Tips: A Guide to Your Favorite Celeb Beauty Lines

3. Be gentle: Perhaps the most important part of exfoliating is to remember to be gentle, especially if you are using a mechanical exfoliant. While it often feels the most satisfying to scrub the skin vigorously to get rid of dead skin cells, you can actually damage your skin if you're too aggressive. Be gentle, use circular motions, and don't scrub your face for more than 30-60 seconds at a time. If you're using a chemical exfoliant, make sure you're not being too rough on your skin with the ingredients you choose, and look for gentler exfoliating ingredients like salicylic acid, especially if you are prone to sensitive skin.

4. Keep a schedule: Another common mistake with exfoliating is doing it too often. Exfoliating more than once a day, or even every single can overwhelm the skin, which needs a break from exfoliation. You may only need to exfoliate 1-3 times a week, or even only once a month if your skin is super sensitive. Find out what works for your skin and be sure you are not overdoing it and irritating your skin.

2. Mermaid scales: Break out your brightest blue eyeshadows and get ready to complete your mask-friendly mermaid costume. By placing a pair of fishnets over your forehead, you can trace out the perfect scale pattern quickly and easily. Try adding some bright scales to the sides of your hairline to frame your eyes, and incorporate a shiny mask to finish out the look.

3. Sunken eyes: One of the most popular makeup looks to pull off on Halloween is the skeleton. This look can also be one of the most challenging, making this year the perfect time to give it a try. Since only the top half of your face will be visible, focus your effort on producing your best sunken eyes with some gray eyeshadow. Continue by tracing the remaining skeletal features out with white eyeliner and throw on a skeleton-smile mask to save yourself from attempting to draw the teeth!

4. Lots of glitter: There is no better time for body glitter than on Halloween. From copying looks from the television show Euphoria to going with more classic options such as princesses and fairies, there are no shortage of glitter looks this Halloween. By coating your eyelids in a shimmery shadow and applying some jewels to your upper cheeks, this beauty tip will make it look like you put in maximum effort on your mask-friendly costume.

5. Doll eyes: Another trend that has been gaining momentum this Halloween is doll eyes. Whether you prefer Barbie dolls or Bratz, there are plenty of tutorials showing you how to create the perfect doll eyes. By overlining your eyes and applying full fake eyelashes, you'll have no trouble turning yourself into one of your favorite childhood toys. Take your recreation to the next level by tracing the dolls lips onto the front of your mask and throwing on some themed accessories.

6. Colored contacts: If you're not the biggest fan of wearing makeup but still want to participate in a mask-friendly Halloween look, colored contacts are a great alternative. Throw on a pair of white contacts to complete a skeleton look, or opt for a deep red to put forward your best vampire. Colored contacts are also a great way to avoid the tiredly makeup removal process at the end of Halloween night as all you have to do is take them out.

7. Classic clown: While they may not be for everyone, clown costumes are another mask-friendly option this Halloween. You can go the scary route by recreating a horror film clown look with dark triangles around your eyes, or the more friendly route by using bright eyeshadows and painting a red nose onto your mask. Wigs and props are another great way to attenuate this costume while staying safe this Halloween.

Beauty Tips: 2020 Skincare Trends

✖ By Nicole Maher

Whether it's from our favorite celebrities, our mother, or the person working at our local beauty store, there is no shortage of beauty tips for creating the perfect skincare routine. However, with advice coming from so many different outlets, it can be difficult to decide whose to take. If you are having difficulties finding skincare products that are perfect for you, try incorporating some of these simple beauty tips into your everyday routine.

2020 has been rough, but the birth of these five skincare beauty tips is a positive.

1. Clean beauty: A beauty trend that has been gaining momentum over the last few years is the use of clean beauty products. These products refrain from using ingredients that are known to be harmful to the human body and focus more on all-natural or low-chemical blends. By including more clean beauty products in your skincare routine, you'll leave your skin looking healthier longer.

Related Link: Beauty Advice: Overnight Beauty Tips to Wake Up Looking Your Best

2. Weekly at-home facials: Everyone loves a good facial, especially when you can do it at home. While facials can do wonders for your skin, doing it too often can sometimes be harmful. Once a week is a good target in terms of using a peel or giving yourself a facial. You can incorporate the use of facial rollers to help your skin absorb different blends and formulas, or simply massage your face with your hands.

Related Link: Beauty Tips: Flawless Foundation

3. Personalized products: The best way to make your beauty routine more effective is to customize it to your own needs. From personalized face washes to hair shampoos, there are plenty of companies that offer specialized formulas aimed at helping the areas you've specified. Many of these companies offer online quizzes to help you customize your own formulas and allow you to make the necessary adjustments until you have a blend that is perfect for your beauty routine.

4. Chemical-free sunscreens: Sunscreen is another popular skincare product that has been added to many people's routines over the past few years. However, the best sunscreen options are those that emphasize being a chemical-free product. Similar to clean beauty products, chemical-free sunscreens are safer to use on your skin, as well as being less harmful to the environment. High chemical-based sunscreens have been proven to be detrimental to environmental ecosystems such as the coral reef, and should be avoided whenever possible.

5. A simpler overall routine: "Less is more" truly is the way to go in terms of skincare. With a new product on the shelves everyday, it can be incredibly tempting to switch up your skincare routine often. Despite this temptation, try to keep your skincare routine as simple and consistent as possible. By changing products constantly, you will end up shocking your skin and cause it to react negatively. Try using between two and four products in your everyday routine with the occasional use of a spot treatment on a problem area.

Fun Fall Beauty Tips

By Carly Silva

Fall is officially here, and that means new beauty trends. Transitioning from summer to fall can warrant a lot of different changes for your beauty routine, including different skincare tricks and a new color palette.

If you're looking to switch up your beauty routine for the fall, here are five fun beauty tips to help you get ready for the fall:

1. Change up your skincare: Fall means cooler weather, which can be tough on your skin. It's important to keep your skin moisturized, which can mean drinking more water or maybe switching to a heavier face moisturizer. Also, it's a good idea to invest in a moisturizing lip product to keep your lips from looking chapped as the weather gets colder.

2. Show off some autumn nails: The fall season is the perfect time to embrace darker color palettes for nail art. Don't be afraid to explore grey tones, purples, reds, oranges, and greens. These dark fall tones will top off any fall beauty look.

3. Warm-toned eyeshadow: Fall is the perfect excuse to wear warm, shimmery, and even glittery eyeshadow. Sparkly golds are extremely trendy this fall, so top off your makeup look with a glittering eyeshadow or a sparkling highlighter on your cheekbones.

4. Add in some dark accents: Something that makes a look pop in the fall is adding a dark accent to your makeup look. The best way to do this is to add a dark lip or fill in your brows to be nice and thick. This type of look is a nice contrast from summer trends and will definitely make you look like you're ready for fall.

5. Don't forget about SPF: Even though you may not be basking in the sun and laying on the beach like in the summertime, SPF is still very important. If you're still going to be outside for fall activities, or even if you won't be outside much, SPF is something your skin needs every day, during every season. Keep your skin healthy and avoid fine lines and premature aging all season long by keeping up with your SPF.

Your overnight beauty musts include:

- 1. Get a good night's sleep: It sounds simple, but it can be challenging to get a good night of sleep regularly. Whether you are working late, out with friends, or binge watching your new favorite show, it can be easy to sacrifice a few hours of sleep to finish whatever it is you are doing. By making an effort to structure your sleeping schedule, you'll wake up both looking and feeling well-rested and ready to take on the day.

2. Wash away the day: Removing makeup and cleansing your skin before falling asleep is an essential step in waking up the next morning looking your best. With so many makeup remover and face wash options on the market, it is also important to find the best fit for your skin. Don't be afraid to shop around before deciding on a more definite skincare routine. Just because something is the hottest product on the market right now does not mean it's the best fit for you!

3. Attack that spot: Despite all of our efforts to keep our face clean and clear, we still may experience a break out occasionally. Spot treatments can be a quick and effective way to clear up any problem areas overnight. They are also a great option if you do not need to use an acne-fighting face wash nightly, or if your skin is particularly sensitive to more aggressive face washes.

4. Bring back the moisture: Applying a moisturizer to your skin at night will help you wake up the next morning looking hydrated and refreshed. Just like with cleansers, it is important to find the best nighttime moisturizer for your skin. Pay attention to if your skin tends to be more oily or dry, and test out different products that cater to those characteristics.

5. Don't forget your hair: Styling or prepping your hair at night can help you save time the next morning. Applying a serum or leave-in conditioner after you shower is a great way to add some moisture and shine back into your hair. You can also save time by styling your hair before falling asleep. One option is to pull your damp hair into loose twists or braids before going to bed. The next morning you'll wake up with beautiful waves, as well as save your hair from any extra heat damage.

6. Clear your mind: When we think of beauty tips, we typically only consider options that benefit our external appearance. However, our thoughts and emotions can have an effect on how we appear and carry ourselves throughout the day. Before settling into bed for the night, take a few moments to clear your mind and process the events of the day. The less stress you bring into the next day, the better you will look and feel!

Beauty Tips: How to Combat Maskne

 By Alycia Williams

Wearing a mask has become a part of our everyday lives, but some people are facing the hurdle of maskne, which is acne created from wearing a mask. Since we can't just stop wearing our masks, beauty tips are needed to prevent and treat maskne.

Here are some beauty tips for preventing and treating maskne!

1. Skip your usual makeup: Wearing too many products under the mask can cause a build up on the skin. Forego wearing foundation, or pick non-comedogenic products under the mask to allow your skin to breathe. This is especially true if you work out in your mask.

2. Wash your mask after every use: It removes any acne-causing bacteria and oils from the mask. Use hot water, laundry detergent, and white vinegar, which has antibacterial, antiviral, and anti fungal properties. Be sure to look for a laundry detergent that is fragrance-free, as leftover fragrance residue can also irritate skin.

3. Exfoliate and hydrate: In addition to your daily washing, the two most important steps in your skincare routine that can help maskne are an exfoliating cleanser and a hydrating moisturizer. Swap your gentle cleanser for an exfoliating version three nights per week.

4. Spot-treat: If you're already experiencing a crop of mask-related pimples, you can use a spot treatment containing salicylic acid, sulfur, zinc, or 2.5 percent benzoyl peroxide.

5. Consider a retinol: Now is also a good time to hop on the retinol bandwagon, if you haven't already. Retinol speeds cell turnover, which prevents dead skin cells from clogging your pores. Start by using several nights a week with a pea-sized amount and gradually increase the frequency.

6. Try a stronger OTC treatment: This product changes the way the skin cells develop from the inside out and works well for blackheads and clogged pores. You can usually find these products over the counter.

7. Create a barrier: When maskne shows up as skin irritation, you may need a “barrier” product to protect your delicate skin. A thin layer of Healing Ointment applied to the irritated skin just before putting on your mask works wonders.

Beauty Tips: Everything You Need to Know About Shampoo for Healthy Hair

 Healthy hair is something most people strive for, but you don't always know how the wrong shampoo can impact the overall look, feel, and health of your hair. With the rise of social media beauty influencers and bloggers, it's become even easier to be misled by false information. Luckily, we have some beauty advice to help you have the healthiest hair possible.

No matter your hair type you have, here are some beauty tips to help debunk common shampoo myths to keep your hair healthy.

How Long Can I Use the Same Shampoo?

Despite the rumors, there's really no science behind your shampoo losing its effect after frequent use. That's not to say that you may have noticed your shampoo has stopped giving you the results you're used to seeing. What may be happening has less to do with the shampoo and more to do with the condition of your hair. If the condition of your hair has changed, it may have different needs now. We recommend trying out a new brand every few years.

Will Frequent Shampooing Strip my Hair of its Natural Oils?

Every person is different, so it's hard to say exactly how often someone should wash their hair. We like to suggest starting off with a weekly wash and pay attention to how your hair responds. Chemicals like coloring and change in the seasons may mean tweaking your hair care regimen to support continued growth.

The type of shampoo you use will also affect your hair's health. Certain brands have harsh cleaning agents in them that can strip the hair and scalp of the oil we need to protect our hair and keep it moisturized. The key to making sure shampoo does not dry out your hair also has to do with your technique. Instead of spreading the shampoo evenly throughout your hair, focus primarily on cleaning your scalp. This will increase blood circulation, which also encourages hair growth.

Will Frequent Shampooing Dry Out My Hair?

The ingredients in your shampoo can make all of the difference. You want to look for formulas that contain a balance of cleaning and moisturizing agents. If you are struggling with hair loss, you want to focus on a shampoo that contains a DHT blocker. DHT can be credited with causing hair loss because the hormone binds to the healthy hair follicles and deprives them of proper oxygen and nutrients.

Will Frequent Shampooing Make My Hair More Greasy?

Believe it or not, the opposite may happen. Sebum is produced by the glands near your hair follicles. Factors like your genetics and your hair type decide how much or how little sebum we each produce. Our glands will continue to create around the same amount of sebum to protect the hair or scalp, regardless of how often you use shampoo. You can trust that your shampoo will only wash away the dirt, oils, products, and dead skin cells that build-up on the scalp.

Will Frequent Shampooing Make My Hair Fall Out?

We naturally lose around 100 hairs a day, but we don't usually notice it. Even though the strands have been dislodged, they may still be hanging on near the follicle. When we shampoo, we tend to dislodge hair that was probably already detached. The longer you go between washes, the more time you're allowing loose hair to dislodge and wait until your next wash. Eventually, when you do wash, you're technically losing the same amount of hair, it's just all coming out at once.

Beauty Tips: Flawless Foundation

 By Alycia Williams

Foundation is the base of every great makeup look. It can make or break your entire look if not done correctly. Finding out new beauty tricks when it comes to applying your foundation can be great, but once you have the correct beauty tips for applying foundation, you may not need any tricks.

Here are the beauty tips you need to have flawless foundation.

1. Start with a clean canvas: Your foundation will only look as good as the skin underneath, so maintaining a consistent skin care routine is key. Right before applying foundation, it's important to cleanse your skin to help prevent clogged pores and remove any dirt that may be dulling your natural radiance. Next, gently exfoliate your skin to sweep away any dry, dead skin cells that may cause foundation to go on unevenly or look flaky. Finally, apply moisturizer; foundation sinks best into hydrated skin.

2. Take the time to prime: A primer may add an additional step to your makeup routine, but it will go a long way to ensure that your foundation looks flawless because it turns your skin into a perfectly smooth surface.

Related Link: Beauty Tips: Choosing and Using Blush Based On Your Needs

3. Be conservative: Always start by applying just a little bit of foundation, and then add more until you have just the right amount of coverage. The goal is to only apply foundation where you need it, so that your skin still looks like skin. If you have to apply foundation all over your face for it to look even, then you're using the wrong shade.

4. Work from the inside out: Concentrate the foundation in the center of your face where redness and blemishes tend to be more problematic. Apply just a dab of foundation on each side of your nose, and in the center of your forehead and chin, then blend outward. After it is all blended in, pinpoint any other areas of the face where blemishes are visible and apply an additional light layer of foundation in those specific areas.

5. Stipple, don't rub: Whether you're using a foundation brush or your fingertips, apply foundation in a stippling motion, which means gently tapping it into your skin. Avoid any wiping or rubbing motions because that will only push the foundation around and cause streaks.

6. Don't forget your ears!: Often overlooked, your ears are a part of your face, too. If you're prone to red lobes, lightly sweep your foundation brush over them so that they blend in with the rest of your face.

7. Set it and forget it: Most people associate powder with a matte, cakey look, but dusting a silky loose setting powder, like Blended Loose Powder, over your foundation will ensure it won't budge without dulling its finish.

Beauty Tricks: The Best Curly Hair Hacks

 By Alycia Williams

When it comes to curly hair, it's definitely a go-to hairstyle, but getting your hair to curl the right way can be hard, especially if you don't want to use a curling iron. The good news is that there are beauty tips that can curl straight hair without applying the heat of a curling iron or rod. These beauty tricks will have your hair curly in no time.

Here are seven beauty tricks for getting the perfect curly hair style.

1. Tuck your hair behind your ears while it dries: When straight hair is completely wet, if you tuck it behind your ears, it'll get wavy and have lots of body once it dries. This is perfect for soft shiny waves.

2. Swap your hair towel for an old t-shirt: Even though it sounds a little weird to dry your hair with an old t-shirt, it'll give you softer and shiner curls, especially if your natural hair already has a little curl to it.

3. Try a paper towel for beachy waves: If you're looking for looser curls, then try drying your hair with paper towels. This particularly works for people with straight hair.

4. Master squishing: When your hair is soaking wet and it has conditioner in it, grab your hair from the bottom and squish it all the way to the top of your head. Then, repeat. Once you rinse out your conditioner, you'll notice bouncier, defined, and frizz-free curls.

5. Use a strainer as a diffuser: Using a pasta strainer can give you glossy blow dried curls. Flip your head over into the strainer and blow dry up into the strainer. Just pile sections of your hair into it you'll have your shiny, frizz-free curls.

6. Bun waves: Putting your hair in a bun while it's wet is a great way to ensure some waves. If you want effortless, light, and airy waves put your hair in a top knot. For more defined waves, do a low bun.

7. Finger coils: While your hair is wet, take little pieces of it and curl it with your finger. Use any kind of soft gel to make sure that it stays. Then, let it dry. When it does, you'll have super defined and bouncy curls.

Beauty Tips: Choosing and Using Blush Based On Your Needs

 By Diana Iscenko

The makeup world is constantly evolving and it feels like there's always more beauty trends to keep up with. It can feel overwhelming to figure out the best routine for you. Today, we're going to focus on finding the perfect blush.

There are four different kinds of blush: powder, cream, gel and stain. Each kind interacts differently with certain skin types. They have different pigmentation and finishes on your cheeks. Luckily, Cupid has some beauty tricks to help you find the perfect blush for your skin type.

Whether you want to up your date night makeup look or improve your daily makeup routine, here are four different types of blush you might want to add to your makeup bag:

1. Powder Blush

This blush is easy to blend and looks great on everyone. Powder blush is the most traditional type of blush, so it comes in a bunch of colors and in every price point. The only drawback is that powder blush doesn't last super long, so you'll need to reapply if you want to keep your soft glow going.

Powder blush works with all skin types. It's especially flattering on people with smooth complexions or larger pores. If you have large pores or bumpy skin, try using a matte powder blush instead of a shimmer! Too much shine will bring attention to your pores and imperfections.

Applying powder blush is easy. Use a dense blush brush to apply the powder on your cheeks. Use sweeping movements toward your hairline. If you want to go the extra mile, you can use a smaller brush in circular motions to get some extra blending after your initial application.

Related Link: Beauty Trends: Date Night Makeup Looks to Match Your Style

2. Cream Blush

Looking for a dewy look? Cream blush is perfect for you! It's also very pigmented, which lets the blush last all day without needing to be reapplied. Cream blush is hydrating, too. It'll give your face a fresh and youthful look and won't dry out your skin.

Cream blush works for most skin types, except oily skin. The oils found in the creamy formula will prevent it from being able to stick to oilier skin. It can also clog pores and cause breakouts. If you have oily skin, cream blush isn't your best bet.

Applying cream blush is more like applying foundation. Use a small stippling brush to pick up the blush and apply it to your cheeks with light, short strokes. Then use either a damp makeup sponge or clean fingertips to blend it out. Be careful with cream blush! Its strong pigmentation means it's easy to overapply.

Related Link: Beauty Trend: Smokey, Golden, and Monochrome Eyes

3. Gel Blush

This blush isn't as heavy and pigmented as cream blush, but it still gives a fresh, dewy look. It's especially great for summer because it's lighter formula is less likely to clog your pores. Unfortunately, it doesn't last as long and it's harder to show up on deeper skin tones.

Gel blush works well for light to medium skin tones. The light pigmentation might be able to build up on darker skin tones, but it might not be worth the extra effort. Using a small amount of cream blush on deeper skin tones will give a similar effect without overloading the product on your skin.

The application for gel blush is similar to cream blush. Because it's less pigmented, you can apply it straight to the apples of your cheeks and then blend the gel out with a damp makeup sponge or clean fingers.

Related Link: Beauty Trend: Red Lipstick

4. Stain Blush

Also called tint blush, stain blush gives you long-lasting color with a barely-there feel. As the name suggests, it stains your cheeks. It can be hard to work with because it dries so quickly. It can dry out your skin, so remember to moisturize before using it!

Stain blush works for all skin types. It works especially well for people who tend to sweat because it so strongly sticks to your cheeks after application. Those with drier skin should make sure your skin is hydrated, so it doesn't dry you out more.

Be careful when applying this blush! Lightly tap the stain into your cheeks with clean fingers and blend with a damp makeup sponge. Apply a little at a time and remember to blend quickly. Once it sets into your skin, it'll be hard to blend out.

Beauty Trends: Date Night Makeup Looks to Match Your Style

✖ By Alycia Williams

When date night finally comes along and you have your outfit picked out and your hair is done, it can be hard to find the right makeup look to match. Whether you want a full face of makeup or a fresh faced look, it all depends on your style. Our beauty tips will help you find the perfect makeup look for your perfect date.

Check out these seven amazing beauty trends for makeup looks to compliment your style:

1. The Fresh Face: Now the fresh face doesn't mean you aren't wearing any makeup at all. If you're looking for a natural and clean face for your date night, then this is your look. A groomed brow, a sharp line of liquid liner, defining mascara and a nude lip stick or lip gloss, can leave your face looking refreshed.

2. The sun-kissed look: Do you want to look like you just came from tanning on the beach? Then this is the look for you. This look is all about using warm tones. Anything from a peachy tone to a bronze tone for eyeshadow with heavy black eyeliner and mascara. Along with some bronze hue on your cheeks, a shimmery golden lipgloss, and a golden highlight on your cheekbones.

3. The bold lip: Whether it's a fearless red or a romantic berry, if you want to do a bold lip, it has to be the focal point of your look. Regardless of the color that you choose, you should prep your lips beforehand by outlining your lips with a matching pencil to really give it that "wow" factor. Then, match the look with neutral eyeshadow tones and a strong defined brow. A winged eyeliner always compliments the bold lip.

4. Classic smokey eye: The smokey eye is the go to for any candlelit dinner. Since this look is all about drama it's important to accentuate the outer part of the eye with a dark eyeshadow and the inner part with a lighter eyeshadow to create the ombre affect. Having a strong brow is important for this look as it outline the eye. Finishing it off with subtle lashes and glossy lip gloss.

5. The glittery look: If you're looking to steal the night away with your ultra shiny makeup, then this is your look. Choosing the right eyeshadow is crucial as this will be the prime focus of the look. The color could be nude or it could be a vibrant purple, as long it as it has glitter, gloss, or shine it works for the look. Matching that with a soft brow, and over the top lashes will seal the deal. You can also top it off with a strong highlight on your cheekbone to give your face some more glimmer.

6. The rosy monochrome: This look light, airy, and flirty. A light pink works perfectly for the eyeshadow, keeping it subtle is key for this look. Along with rosy cheeks and a soft pink lipstick or lipgloss. Keep the eyebrows and lashes subtle and not overdone and you can even skip eyeliner for this look. To top it off use a delicate highlighter on your cheekbones and in the corner of your eyes.

7. Bold liner: Using bright colors for eyeliners is a great way to keep all eyes on you, so this is a great date night look. Since you want your liner to stand out almost everything should be nude. The eyeshadow could go a little off the nude palate but not too far keeping everything moderate. No matter what color you choose, it should be applied to either the top of the lid or as under liner, but it shouldn't be both. To complete this look you'll just need gentle brows and mascara.

Celebrity Interview: Hollywood's Most Sought-After Hair Colorist Michael Canale Talks Tips for At-Home Hair Care and His New Hair Line

 By Hope Ankney

Michael Canale is an American hairstylist, colorist, and the creator of Canale Hair Care Products. Yet, he's mainly famous for being the most sought-after hair specialist in Hollywood.

Being a part of the entertainment industry for years, his hands have worked magic on the likes of Reese Witherspoon, Jennifer Aniston, and Kate Hudson. In fact, Canale is responsible for "The Rachel" look on Aniston that dominated the widely successful, early 2000s sitcom Friends. But, he's recently decided to branch out and start his own line of hair care products to further help others outside of his grasp. On top of that, he has spoken out about the importance of self-care and how to maintain your color during this time of quarantine.

In our exclusive celebrity interview, we chat Michael on his rise in the industry, advice over safe hair coloring tips, tricks to try at home, and his new hair line Canalé.

How did all of this start for you? Was there a specific moment you remember that caused you to want to become a hair colorist?

I was a biology minor and have always been on the chemical side of the industry. Early in my career, the colorist where I worked did not show up to the salon. The makeup artist asked me if I wanted to learn how to color hair with him. So, he taught me how to identify the right color for each type of complexion. He also showed me 3 techniques that I have expanded over time, making my own numerous techniques while retaining those 3 main concepts.

You've worked with very well-known clientele over the years. Jennifer Aniston... Kate Hudson... Are there any stories you can tell us about your favorite experiences with some of them?

I am a colorist, and I work by myself. It was amazing to see Jennifer blow-dry her own hair as well as any stylist! Heidi Klum was the only person that ever made me blush just by her looking at me. I am honored to work with a lot of my actresses, trusting me to color their hair during their pregnancies, like Kate Hudson!

You've been voted 14 years in a row by Allure Magazine as being the "best of the best" and even received praise from Vogue. You have such a prolific career. What advice do you have for young children or even young stylists who want to get into the field?

Learn from the best, work with the best, and never let them down. Make the master stylist proud. Remember to keep the health of the hair, use what the client naturally has to achieve – what they desire. Work with their natural base color and their hair consistency to enhance their overall look.

With the state of the world right now and everyone being at home due to quarantine, what are some at-home hair coloring tips for our audience?

Between seeing your colorist and seeing them again, do not do anything that will ruin your hair. While quarantined, you can use concealers like spray and powders that cover grey. This lasts until you wash it out. Another option is demi or semi-permanent. Demi will last up to 2 weeks while semi can last up to 6 weeks when using the right hair products. Both will keep your hair color intact while waiting to see your hairdresser again. If you choose to dye your hair, remember hairlines grab darker, so try to stay lighter around the hairline. You will have to purchase 2 different boxes of color. For example, if you are doing your base medium brown use light brown around your hairline. Also for brunettes, try a color bath with the remainder of the hair color! Use a base color, you can add water and shampoo to the remaining color in the bottle and lather it into the ends of the hair to refresh it for the last 5 minutes of the process.

From your perspective, what are the hair color trends at the moment?

Roots are in! Try to preserve or prolong your hair color. I recommend using a color and shine-boosting gloss. All of my New SIGNATURE GLOSSES, can really refresh and enhance color for both highlights and base colors. The SUNKISSED GOLD for warmer skin tones and COOL BLUE for cooler skin tones will brighten up your blonde while MIDNIGHT BLUE cools down any brassy tones on blondes or brunettes. They last up to 2 weeks, the results are amazing! I am currently providing samples to my clients in my Canalé At Home Personalized Color Kits. The glosses will be made available in June for the Summer and can currently be pre-ordered on my website www.colorbycanale.com.

Self-care in any way can be something that makes someone feel great about how they look or feel inside. How important do you feel it is to practice self-care on your hair while being isolated during this pandemic?

Take care of yourself and your hair! Get up in the morning, take a shower, wash, and style your hair. Use boar bristles, not metal for your brushes, and avoid hot tools. Add oils to your conditioner. My new REPAIRING Hair Oil restores natural luster, hydrates, and deeply conditions dry, damaged, and color-treated hair. Just add 3-5 drops of oil to a tablespoon of Canalé SOFTEN or SOFTEN PLUS Conditioner for a deep conditioning treatment. I am also providing these samples to my clients in my Canalé At Home Personalized Color Kits. They will be made available in June and can currently be pre-ordered on my website www.colorbycanale.com.

Can you tell us a little bit more about your product line, Canalé?

People would come to me and ask, "How can I keep my hair looking fresh until I see you again?" So, I created a product line that is proven to maintain and restore the integrity of treated hair from the inside out and the outside in! Canalé CLEANSE Shampoo for all types of hair is the mildest shampoo that fully cleans the hair without fading color. SOFTEN Conditioner for finer hair, rebuilds the hair shaft and brings back the luster of the hair. SOFTEN PLUS Conditioner, rebuilds the hair shaft plus adds moisture, perfect for thick, unmanageable hair. Canalé hair products have two supplements, one topical and one ingestible. NOURISH topical vitamin foam is applied to the root of the hair and feeds the hair follicle with key nutrients. It is applied after Cleanse shampoo and expands the hair shaft adding volume. It is the most technologically advanced product in the line. The ingestible vitamin REPLENISH feeds the hair, skin, and nails all-natural, vegan, superfood, blue-green algae, and other key nutrients that help stimulate the hair with a patent on cellular absorption by Targeted Medical Pharma. Healthy, shiny hair that is what everyone wants!

How did the idea come about to create the products for Canalé? Was there a specific amount of time you waited before pursuing it?

In the past, I represented brands like Kerastase and Shu Uemura. Although I loved these products, I still felt something was missing. I made it my personal goal to develop the most holistic healthy hair care system. I partnered with Dr. David Silver and worked together to scientifically formulate a product line focusing on getting and keeping hair healthy while maintaining and extending hair color, improving the fullness of hair, and bringing out the natural shine.

What do you think is the greatest opportunity you've had while having the platform you do as such a renowned hair colorist?

I truly enjoy making people happy. Creating the trend, while working to bring out my client's personal best. The right color is an accessory, use it to your advantage. People can always tell my work, enhancing a person's natural complexion and eye color, this trend never goes out of style. I have appreciated the opportunity to share my work over the years with multiple generations of the most powerful woman, true icons, and inspirations.

The hairstyles we have can be so empowering. The way one plays with theirs can be such a creative outlet. Why do you think that is?

Hair is personal. It is an expression and extension of ourselves and our personality. It is who we are and who we inspire to be. With the latest hair color trends, individuals are empowered and encouraged to take risks. Using temporary dye or hair makeup is so fun!

Voted "Best-of-the-Best" by Allure Magazine 14 years in a row and touted by Vogue as "not only really good, he's really fast," Canalé personally travels between locations in Rancho Santa Fe, San Francisco, Dallas, New York, Washington DC and Beverly Hills, making sure that each of his clients gets the hands-on attention they need to look and feel their very best. With over 30 years' experience, Michael Canalé is a rare talent and truly among the best in the industry; his work has been published in Allure, Vogue, Vanity Fair, Women's Health, Elle, Marie Claire, Redbook, Glamour, and New Beauty, to name a few.

Beauty Tips: Fall Makeup Looks for Thanksgiving Dinner

 By Ahjané Forbes

Just because you have to switch up your makeup slightly does not mean you can't still look on fleek. It's very easy if you use the mauve color palette and don't mind mixing and matching colors. Cupid has some beauty tips you can use to look stunning while eating a turkey leg.

You want to look cute for the family photos, but you're not sure what type of makeup you should wear. How can you archive a fierce Fall look for Thanksgiving? Here are some beauty tips.

1. Arch those brows: Finding a perfect way to do your eyebrows is a process. Make sure you shape your eyebrows before you start. You can shape them yourself with an eyebrow shaver or go to a salon to get them threaded or waxed. Eyebrow crayons are also a good option, because they are made to last longer than eyebrow pencils and are a lot easier to use. Brushes are also a big help in volumizing those fine hairs. If you are one of those people who hate the eyebrow styling process entirely, you can try a tint and sculpting or microblading at a salon.

2. Natural colored eyeshadow: Start with an eyeshadow that is close to your skin complexion. Apply a deep red or orange around the outer portion of your eyelid. You can get creative and mix a nude with a dark red or brown to add an outline to the lower portion of the lid. Blend all the colors together and see how it looks. If you really want your look to pop, add a glittery gold eyeshadow on the section that still has that natural look. Don't forget to add lashes as well!

3. Bare those nudes!: Fall is a time to embrace your skin color. Match your skin tone and work from there! Add your primer. For your foundation, you can use color! Again, you don't want it to look bright, but you can get away with a dark color. Use a burgundy or mahogany for the foundation. Yes, it will look weird at first, but you you'll end up blending it. Now, apply concealer. This is where you can get away with a little color to blend out that foundation. Choose a shade up from your normal color. Make sure to apply it under your eyes! Use a brush for application and a beauty blender to even out the colors.

4. Highlight your beauty: Even though you're trying to obtain a subtle look, you can still use a little highlighter. Use a contour that closely matches your hair color. Work with the glitter eyeshadow that you used on your eyes. You can go for a softer look with a highlight that isn't so bright as well. For it to be more noticeable, apply it above your contour, straight down your nose, and outline your top lip and under your eyebrows.

5. Kiss me: You have freedom in this part! Glossy and matte lipsticks both work for this look. Stick to the Fall theme by wearing a dark red or brown. If you used mahogany or burgundy for your foundation, bring your look full circle with that color! When done, you can use a setting power (lasts longer) or spray to savor the look!
