This celebrity baby news is the talk of the town! What are some ways to prepare for twins versus an individual child?

Cupid’s Advice:

You have to prepare before welcoming a baby into your family – and with twins, double the babies means double the preparation. You need two cribs, two sets of clothing, twice as many diapers...the list goes on! Below, Cupid shares three ways to prep for twins versus an individual child:

- 1. Find a good stroller: It’s important to pick out the best double stroller for your family – side-by-side, tandem, or jogger – before your babies arrive. It’ll make challenging tasks like taking them to the grocery store or even on a walk around the neighborhood that much easier. Plus, it may be your saving grace if they have trouble sleeping in those first few weeks!

2. Set-up a nursery: Will your twins share a crib? Will they share a room with two cribs? Or will they each have their own room? Be smart as you decorate their room(s) and buy the essentials. You'll have to buy two of some items (like highchairs), but other things (like a changing table), they can share.

3. Arrange for help: Even with one newborn, help is essential. With two babies, you'll need all hands on deck! Make plans for your mom or mother-in-law to come stay with you soon after they're born. During that time, interview trustworthy babysitters or nannies so that you have back-up whenever you need it.

Celebrity Baby News: Jonathan Rhys Meyers & Fiancee Welcome a Son

By Justin Thomas

The celebrity couple started dating in 2014 and got engaged December of that year. Jonathan has been struggling with alcohol addiction for years now, but it is said that his fiancée has been a driving force behind his journey to sobriety, even through a brief relapse in 2015 in which he took to Lane's Instagram account to address the issue and apologize to his fans.

There's another celebrity baby to add to the mix! What are some ways to prepare for a baby boy specifically?

Cupid's Advice:

There are some obvious differences you could imagine when preparing for baby boy as opposed to a girl, so here are some pointers on what to expect when you're expecting ... a boy!:

1. Pink or blue?: Telling a little girl to put down the football is vastly different than telling a little boy to put down a doll. Gender roles are a vital part of parenting from the very beginning so be mindful of gender roles and identity, and what they mean to you as a parent.

2. Boys do cry: Don't assume because you're having a boy that parenting will be a breeze. Even though they might get a little more down and dirty, know that boys (babies included) can be a lot more emotional and sensitive than popular stereotypes maintain.

3. The process: There's no all-encompassing manual or instruction pamphlet designed for parenthood. It's a learning process for not only the baby, but also for parent. If this is your first baby or baby boy, don't be afraid of learning and making mistakes.

Olivia Wilde & Jason Sudeikis Welcome a Celebrity Baby Girl!

By Kayla Garritano

This celebrity news has us going Wilde! Celebrity couple Olivia Wilde and husband Jason Sudeikis welcomed a second child into their family. Their new celebrity baby girl, Daisy, was born on Tuesday, October 11. According to UsMagazine.com, Mama Wilde shared a post on Instagram on October 15 of her new daughter with the caption, "There goes the neighborhood. Daisy Josephine Sudeikis. Born, like a boss, on #internationaldayofthegirl.”

This couple welcomed their second celebrity baby. What are some ways to prepare differently for your second child versus your first?

Cupid's Advice:

Having children is a beautiful miracle. However, preparing for the first child may be a little different than preparing for your second. Cupid is here to help you get ready for child number two:

1. Prepare the older sibling: Now that you're extending your family even more, you need to think about your first child. Since they are becoming a big brother or sister, it will be exciting, but there may be a little jealousy. Just make sure that you pay attention to your first child, even though having a newborn is a lot of work. Neither of your children should feel neglected.

2. Hand-me-downs: The good thing about having gone through pregnancy and birth already is that you still have all your old equipment. First of all, you still have your maternity clothes, so you don't need to go shopping again. But there's also the benefit of having a crib, baby clothes that your first child grew out of, a stroller, etc. You get to save some cash when having a second child, which will be important in the long run.

3. Less parenting books, and more hands-on experience: When preparing for your first child, you spent most of your time reading pregnancy, birth and parenting books to ensure your child was healthy. However, now that you already have your first child, you've experienced what it's like to be hands on with your child. You know how to hold your baby, how to put them to sleep, and how to feed them. Hopefully, this will make you a little more at ease when you're expecting your second child.

Cupid's Advice:

Teaching your child to enjoy the same things you and your partner do can be a great way to bond with your child. It's sometimes challenging to engage your child. Cupid is here to help:

1. Play with them: Whether it's music or acting that you're interested in, play it in a casual environment. Kids love to play school and play store so whatever it is you're into, play it with them. Allow them to play an instrument or play with dolls. Incorporate your interests into their games.

2. Show them: If you take them to your concerts or gigs, they might get an appreciation for it too. Not everybody is an entertainer, so take them to your intramural softball games or just introduce them to your favorite entertainers. Concerts and movies that you love can be stuff that the two of you love together especially as your child gets older.

There's another celebrity baby in the mix for Megan and Brian! What do you do if you find yourself pregnant and in the midst of a split?

Cupid's Advice:

Pregnancy can cause a shift in a relationship, and it's not always positive. It's one thing when you decide to have a child together, but when you realize you're pregnant in the midst of a split, it can get dicey. Cupid is here to help:

1. Communicate: Weigh your options with your partner (or ex-partner) and decide how best to handle it. Raising a child together is a big step, especially if you aren't on the best terms. Understand that you have other options, but don't make any decisions without them.

2. Make it work: Divorced parents and separated families make it work all the time. It isn't the easiest solution, but sometimes it's all you can do. Just try to be civil toward them for your kids and act accordingly in order to provide for them.

3. Single parenting: If the situation is really bad and you can't bear to be anywhere near your ex, try raising the child on your own. The idea of a bad father being in the picture isn't good for anybody. With the help of your family, you can definitely have a strong support system without him.

Fingers crossed that this famous family gets reunited soon!

This celebrity news is very unfortunate. What are some ways to know if you're ready to have a baby?

Cupid's Advice:

Children are a blessing. Although babies can bring joy, some couples simply just aren't ready to have them. Let Cupid help you determine if you're ready for parenthood before you actually get pregnant:

- 1. Available: Babies require a lot of time, care, and patience. Evaluate your schedule and goals to see if you can take care of another life besides your own, just like Money did in this celebrity news. Whether you're focused on your career or trying to figure out what to do with your life you need to be honest with yourself about having the time to devote yourself to this baby.

2. Educate yourself: You'll never know if children are for you if you don't educate yourself on the topic. Take time to research what it's like to have a baby and what they need. Or if you're a hands-on learner, assist someone you know in caring for their baby. This will be the best way for you to see if you're ready to have one of your own.

Courtney Stodden Suffers Miscarriage of Celebrity Baby

By Nicole Caico

Celebrity couple Courtney Stodden and Doug Hutchison are coping with the loss of their unborn celebrity baby. Stodden, 21, recently confirmed that she was expecting in May. According to UsMagazine.com, Stodden's rep put out a statement addressing the miscarriage on July 17, saying, "It is with a heavy heart to inform you that last week Courtney Stodden suffered a heartbreaking miscarriage. Courtney and her husband, Doug, are at an emotional loss for words and are using this time to grieve with their close family and friends."

Courtney Stodden is broken hearted over the loss of her celebrity baby. What are some ways to support a mother who has experienced loss?

Cupid's Advice:

It is no secret that miscarrying is emotionally traumatic for an expecting mother or couple. Unfortunately, there is no way to change the situation, but supporting a woman or couple going through this experience can make a difference:

1. Share stories: Miscarriages are more common than many people know, and even though many women do not talk about their miscarriages, there is still a stigma. In order to help a mother who has experienced this loss, have other women share their experiences with miscarriages. Whether you read stories online together or have friends and family talk about it, sharing this information should help her realize that her miscarriage is not her fault, and that she is not alone.

2. Don't dwell: It is extremely important to acknowledge and talk about the emotional pain that your friend or family member is going through after this loss, but do not harp on it. Let her start the conversation. You won't know if she is ready to tell you about it, or if she can emotionally handle talking about it, unless she starts the conversation. Constantly revisiting the topic might make her feel worse.

3. Look toward the future: A miscarriage does not mean the end of hope for parenthood. Encouraging this woman or couple to continue hoping for the baby they've always wanted will hopefully lift their spirits. Remind them that this loss is not a failure and that they should continue looking forward.
