Celebrity News: Kourtney Kardashian Says She Has 'Responsibility' to Teach Kids About White Privilege

By Diana Iscenko

In the latest celebrity baby news, Kourtney Kardashian shares that she's committed to teaching her children about white privilege. In a recent Instagram post, Kardashian shares the importance of allowing "conversation without judgement" with your kids. In the wake of George Floyd's death and Black Lives Matter protests, it's easy to turn away from these conversations because they're uncomfortable. "As a mother, there is a natural instinct to protect my children from anything that might make them feel sad or unsafe," said Kardashian. However, that's not stopping the reality TV star: "I bare the responsibility to speak with my kids honestly and often about it, even when the truth is uncomfortable." Kardashian set an example for her children by donating to the NAACP and the Bail Project through her lifestyle and wellness brand Poosh.

In celebrity news, Kourtney

Kardashian is speaking out about teaching her kids about racism and white privilege. What are ways to come to terms with your partner on which values to instill in your children?

Cupid's Advice:

As much as we love our partners, we won't always see eye to eye. This becomes especially challenging when it comes to raising your children. If you need help deciding what values to teach your kids, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Decide what's important: Have a conversation with your partner. Decide what values are non-negotiable and what's most important to actively teach your kids. Remember that your kids will model their behavior after your own, so not every lesson will be verbal!

Celebrity Babies: Carrie Underwood Said She 'Considered Adoption' Following Multiple Miscarriages

By Diana Iscenko

In the latest celebrity news, Carrie Underwood shared that she and husband Mike Fisher “considered adoption” before the birth of their second son. Underwood recently revealed that the celebrity couple had three miscarriages in two years. According to UsMagazine.com, on the latest episode of Mike and Carrie: God & Country, the singer said, “We needed to have a baby or not ever. Because I couldn’t keep going down that road anymore.” The pair considered adopting to bring celebrity baby #2 into the world, but they were then able to conceive their second son Jacob, whom they welcomed in January 2019.

In celebrity baby news, Carrie Underwood considered adoption after having multiple miscarriages. What are some ways to decide if adoption is right for you and your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

When you and your partner are ready to start a family, consider adopting kids! Adoption comes with its own set of challenges, but it's just as rewarding (if not more) as having your biological children. If you're not sure if adoption is right for you and your partner, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. You are unable to have biological children: Many couples who are unable to conceive on their own turn to adoption. Whether you have fertility issues or have a same-sex partner, adoption is the perfect way to expand your family.

Celebrity Babies: Kristen Bell Vows to Raise Her and Dax Shepard's Kids to Be 'Anti-Racists'

By Diana Iscenko

In the latest celebrity news, Kristen Bell shared her and husband Dax Shepard's commitment to teaching their daughters about racial inequality. In the wake of George Floyd's death and Black Lives Matter protests, the celebrity couple is working toward raising "anti-racist" children. In an interview with The Morning Beat, Bell said, “I have been having a lot of conversations with my children about what’s happening right now because I think part of the problem is discomfort.” Bell continues to say that while these conversations are hard, they need to occur within white communities: “Bring it to your dinner table, don’t look away because it’s uncomfortable.”

In celebrity baby news, Kristen and Dax’s kids will be raised as anti-racists. How do you instill good values in your children?

Cupid’s Advice:

We all want our kids to grow up to be good people but toeing the line of informative and lecturing can be difficult. If you’re not sure where to start, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Be a good role model: You need to set a good example for your children. No matter what you teach them, it will be undone if they see you acting differently from what you’ve taught them. Don’t undermine yourself! Apologize to your kids when you mess up. Share your experiences with them so they can understand why the values you teach them are so important.

2. Relate the issue to their life: Relating a value back to your child’s life will make it easier for them to understand it and why it’s important. You can use anything to teach them—an issue at school, an event you witness at the store, or even an incident on the news. These make great spontaneous lessons. Ask your kids what they would’ve done.

Dynasty' Star Phil Robertson Finds Out He has Adult Daughter From Past Affair

By Diana Iscenko

In the latest celebrity news, Duck Dynasty star Phil Robertson discovered he has a 45-year-old daughter. In a recent episode of their podcast, Unashamed with Phil Robertson, two of Robertson's sons, Alan, 55, and Jase, 50, revealed they received letters from their long-lost sister, Phyliss. The reality TV patriarch took a DNA, which was a 99.9% match. "As it turns out, 45 years, you have a daughter that you don't know about. Finally, after all those years, we come together," Robertson said.

In celebrity baby news, Phil Robertson is coping with the news that he has an adult daughter he never knew about. What are some ways to welcome a child (baby or adult) into your family?

Cupid's Advice:

Families come in all shapes and sizes. No matter who you're bringing into your family, it's important to welcome them with open arms. If you're unsure how to seamlessly expand your family, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Tell extended family: Whether you're having a baby, adopting a child, or reuniting with an adult family member, it's important to make sure they feel welcome. That starts with the entire family being excited to meet them, not just the parents.

Celebrity Baby News: Elon Musk & Grimes Change Newborn Son's Name to Comply with California Law

By: Alycia Williams

In latest celebrity news, Elon Musk and Grimes changed the name of their newborn celebrity baby to abide by the California Law. According to UsMagazine.com, the celebrity couple welcomed their son on May 4, and originally named him X Æ A-12. Once the name was revealed, many were quick to point out that according to the California State Constitution, names can only use the 26 alphabetical characters of the English language. The couple then changed their son's name to X Æ A-Xii. When questioned on social media about the name change, Grimes replied, "Roman numerals looks better."

In celebrity baby news, Elon Musk and Grimes were forced to slightly change their baby's name. What are some ways to compromise with your partner about baby names?

Cupid's Advice:

Expecting a baby is one of the most joyous feelings in life, but picking the baby's name can sometimes be a battle. It will be one of the first decisions that you and your partner make together as parents. For some ways to compromise with your partner about baby names, Cupid has some advice below:

1. Hear each other out: In any relationship, it's so important that you listen to each other. You should both come up with suggestions for the baby's name and then listen to what you both came up with and why. Although you may be head over heels in love with the names that you picked, you may find that your partner came up with something that you like better.

2. Narrow it down: Before you start throwing names at each other, figure out what kind of names you both are interested in. It can be long or short names, modern or old-fashioned names, or maybe even unisex names. Whatever it is, come to an agreement and go down that path together to look for names.

3. Take your time: Finding the perfect name for your baby won't be easy, but luckily you have nine long months to narrow it down. Although you're eager to have a name for the baby, understand that you may like one name today and then like another a few months later. Sometimes naming your baby after you meet them can be more efficient because the name you picked out beforehand may not match your baby's look or personality. Understanding that nothing is final until the name is on the birth certificate is key!

Celebrity News: Gavin Rossdale Says Quarantine Coparenting with Gwen Stefani Has Been a 'Dilemma'

By Hope Ankney

In the latest celebrity news, Gavin Rossdale and Gwen Stefani have had a challenging time co-parenting their three sons together during isolation. According to UsMagazine.com, Rossdale says that it is hasn't been easy to align their schedules to ensure their kids are staying safe between the two of them. "I think it's ok for now," he continued, "but it's a really big dilemma for parents and kids with split custody."

In celebrity news, these exes are having a tough time co-parenting their children together in quarantine. What are some ways you can spend time with your kids during this period of isolation?

Cupid's Advice:

With the lockdown, it has caused kids to be home more than usual since schools have let out. That can get boring rather quickly, so it is important to try and keep your children as engaged as possible. But, it can be harder than you think to not run out of activities to do with them. If you're having a hard time coming up with new ideas to do with your children right now, don't worry! Cupid has some parenting advice on ways to freshen up this isolation period for both you and them:

1. Zoom family calls: Whether it be with their other parent or just members of the family, it can be fun to get the kids talking to others outside of just you. It gives them an outlet to socialize with people, and they can even do certain activities with them through the screen! I'm sure their grandparents would simply love to just color with them over the call!

Celebrity News: Dwayne Wade Responds to Backlash Over His Son Wearing Fake Nails

By Hope Ankney

In the latest celebrity news, Dwayne Wade took to Twitter after Thanksgiving weekend to address criticism of his son, Zion, wearing fake nails. According to UsMagazine.com, the hate started over a photo of Wade with his wife, Gabriella Union, and two children, that was posted on Thanksgiving. In the photo, his son is seen wearing a cropped, black sweater and fake nails. He wrote, in response, “Stupidity is apart of this world we live in—so I get it. But here’s the thing—I’ve been chosen to lead my family not y’all. So we will continue to be us and support each other with pride, love & a smile!”

In celebrity news, Dwayne Wade is a proud parent and is sticking up for his child amid controversy. What are some ways to shield your children from unnecessary drama?

Cupid's Advice:

Just like Dwayne Wade and Gabriella Union, sometimes you, too, can come under fire for the way you choose to allow your children to express themselves. It's important to let your kids know that you support them in whoever they choose to become. But, that doesn't mean you won't get backlash for it by some. If you're a parent dealing with hate over how your child is acting or dressing, don't worry. Cupid has some parenting advice for how to shield your children and stick up for them when unnecessary drama arises:

1. Stand up for them: It's difficult for a child to fight their own battles if its adults and strangers criticizing them. You're the adult in the situation. If anyone is talking badly about them, it is your responsibility to take up for them. A parent's love and support are vital in allowing a child to grow creatively and expressively. And, they won't forget the fact that you stood up for them in the face of controversy.

Celebrity Baby News: 'RH0A' Star Kandi Burruss Is Expecting Third Baby Via Surrogate

By Meghan Khameraj

In celebrity news, Real Housewives of Atlanta star Kandi Burruss is expecting her third child. According to UsMagazine.com, Burruss revealed in November of 2018 that she and her husband were in the surrogacy process. Burruss stated, "We have two embryos that are still left from when we had Ace. So, we have two embryos left and we know they're girls." Burruss gave birth to son Ace in 2016 and she also gave birth to Riley, her 17-year-old daughter with her ex-husband, Russell Spencer. This, however, is a different celebrity pregnancy experience for her. She opened up about her nerves and the advice Andy Cohen, who also had a child through surrogacy, gave her. She explained to Busy Phillips, "I had made a comment. I said something like, 'I guess I'm gonna have a baby mama and he said to me, 'Don't you ever say that because you are the mother. And to say she's your baby's mom is taking away from you.' It made me feel better." Looks like we'll have a new celebrity baby soon!

In celebrity baby news, Kandi Burruss is having a baby via surrogate. What are some factors to consider before having a child via surrogate?

Cupid's Advice:

Kandi Burruss is getting ready to welcome her third child via surrogate. Burruss had a lot of nerves and doubts before she was able to fully commit to surrogacy. Cupid has some factors to consider to help you figure out if surrogacy is the right choice for you:

1. Your health: If you're considering having a child, via surrogate or not, it is important to make sure you're healthy both physically and mentally. Surrogacy can come with a lot of stress and struggles. Knowing how to deal with your stress and emotions in a safe way can make the entire process go smoothly.

Celebrity Baby News: Jenna Dewan & Boyfriend Steve Kazee Are Expecting

By Ahjané Forbes

In celebrity news, Step Up star Jenna Dewan is waiting for a bundle of joy to arrive, as she is expecting a celebrity baby with her boyfriend, actor Steve Kazee. This will be Jenna Dewan's second child. The celebrity parent had her first child with her heart throb co-star and ex-husband Channing Tatum. According to UsMagazine.com, Dewan's celebrity ex was crying while she was giving birth to their daughter. The Magic Mike star told the magazine, "I probably went to the bathroom four times [at the hospital] and had a crying fit. Like, I'm just like, 'I don't know what to do!'" Tatum later added that "seeing the one you love in pain makes you feel bad, Men are useless, but we are really useless during [the delivery process]."

In celebrity baby news, Jenna Dewan is preparing to welcome her second child – her first with Steve Kazee. What are some ways to prepare for the birth of your second child?

Cupid's Advice:

Welcoming a little one into the world can be very time consuming and stressful if you aren't prepared. Having your second child should be easier, right? Not exactly! Sometimes it can be easier if you have the same gender as you did previously, especially if you have a lot of baby clothes and bottles left over. Babies have a mind of their own just like humans. They can't directly tell you how they're feeling, but you'll catch their drift once they start crying. The second can be tricky and different for everyone. Cupid has some tips and tricks to help you through this journey:

1. Don't assume this will be easy: Every child and pregnancy is different. Try to keep an open mind, especially with the second child. Even though this is the second child, there's still a lot to learn about being a parent. Also, if you aren't the one having the child, be there for your partner.

2. Don't compare the two children: When the baby is born, it's okay to assume who they look like and whose personality they might have. It is important that you try to not compare your children in the beginning stages of life. Yes, they might do some of the same things that older brother or sister do/did, but it's not a good habit to keep comparing the two. You want your baby to be their own person and not a younger version of your first child.

3. Relax: Everything will work out fine if you are less stressed. The baby will come and you'll be fine. Don't overthink anything or expect the worse. Just hope for a healthy and happy baby, because that's truly all that matters.

Celebrity News: Heidi Klum Reveals What Her Kids Think of New Husband Tom Kaulitz

By Hope Ankney

In the latest celebrity news, Heidi Klum revealed how her children feel about her new husband, Tom Kaulitz. According to UsMagazine.com, Klum opened up at the Amazon Prime Video Post-Emmy party, saying that things seem “so far, so good.” Kaulitz added, “I think it’s working out pretty good,” as he spoke about teaching her four kids how to play the guitar. The celebrity couple wed in front of friends and family only last month.

In celebrity news, even the famous worry about introducing their kids to a new partner. What are some effective ways to introduce your kids to your partner?

Cupid’s Advice:

There are some things celebrities do that aren't so much different than us. Fame doesn't always have its perks, especially when it comes to introducing your children to your newest love interest. It's something that a lot of couples worry about, as things get complicated when kids are involved. If you're stressing over having the talk with your little ones about or introducing them to your new partner, don't worry! Cupid has some parenting advice that'll help you navigate the trickiness of moving on with someone new when you're a parent:

1. Don't have your children meet every person you date:

Children rely on you for their security and stability. They tend to thrive in environments that can be built on trust and vulnerability. Having partners come in and out of your life is something that hurts a child's ability to find genuine investment within your relationships. Everyone wants to jump into inviting the date over to 'get to know' their kids, but unless it is someone you've been with that you trust being in your life for a long time, it might not be the greatest idea to have kids form a bond with them.

2. Keep the first meeting short and sweet: Going somewhere that is public is a great way to introduce your kids to your partner. Perhaps, ask them where they would like to go. Restaurants or out for ice cream are great environments for the children to relate to the new person that is being introduced to them since they are content and relaxed. Remember, meeting the kids where they are comfortable is key!

3. Talk to your kids: Having a conversation about your partner first is always a great idea before introducing your kids to them. Ask your children how they feel about you seeing a new person and what they think about you having a dating life.

Opening a dialogue can be an important aspect of your relationship with your kids, and it can help you see their perspective on the relationship before you figure out how to introduce the person to the rest of your family.

Celebrity Parenting: Victoria Beckham Shares How Motherhood Affected Her Body Image

By Ahjané Forbes

In celebrity news, “I accept who I am,” said former Spice Girl, Victoria Beckham, as she opened up to Glamour UK about being a mom and her body image. The celebrity parent has revealed that she has struggled with body image in the past. After having a baby, your body will change, but it’s up to you to have a positive outlook on it. The model explains that your children will notice you not taking care of yourself or having a body positivity issue. Beckham says that teaching your children how to love themselves will help you love yourself more. She commented on her body now saying, “I make the best of who I am!”

Even in celebrity parenting, there are insecurities. What are some ways to combat body image insecurities after having a child?

Cupid’s Advice:

Body image insecurities have become the new normal. Certain body types are viewed as “most acceptable” or “most appealing”. However, body types that are outside that realm are considered “unacceptable” and “unattractive”. Cupid has some advice about staying positive after having a child:

- 1. Be YOU!: You’re still that same person you are before you had a child. It’s important to keep a positive mindset. Our bodies go through changes over time, so don’t start saying things like, “I looked like this at one point” or “I was this size”. Don’t put yourself in a category; love who you are.

2. Try something new: Doing a new activity or meeting new people can switch your mindset from a dull one. Join an exercise class with other moms, and start from there. Surrounding yourself with women who are going through the same thing as you are will lead to you empowering each other.

3. Go shopping: Yes, your body has changed, but that does not mean you have to stop looking gorgeous. You might need to change your size, your store, or your taste. Start simple by buying a top, a new pair of denim jeans or even a mini dress. Put that outfit on and walk your baby through the mall with confidence. You'll be surprised by how many compliments you'll get. You might even inspire another mom to be just like you!

Celebrity Couple Kelly Ripa & Mark Consuelos Send Daughter Off to College

By Katie Sotack

It's off to school season, and celebrity parents are not immune to their nests becoming smaller. Live! host Kelly Ripa and Riverdale actor Mark Consuelos recently sent their second oldest and only daughter off to college. Consuelos uploaded a photo with the caption "2 down... 1 to go", referring to the couple's third child. Using the same picture, Ripa shared the news via Instagram, where many celebrity friends were sympathetic to the news. Lisa Rinna, Real Housewives of Beverly Hills star, who recently sent her daughter off to college as well, commented several sobbing emojis in solidarity.

This celebrity couple's nest just got a little bit smaller. What are some ways to deal with an empty nest when your children leave home?

Cupid's Advice:

It's college season in America! Parents cry and young adults rejoice as they ship off to schools across the country. Empty nesting may seem daunting at first, but think about all the perks of your children leaving home:

1. Reconnect as a couple: It's likely that you and your partner have not lived alone since before your child was born. Once your baby moves out, recommit to your relationship. Being home alone with your partner means date nights in and walking around in your underwear again. A child leaving is nothing lost; it's readjusting to a life you once had.

2. A new relationship: When your child moves away, your relationship will morph. Likely, it'll get better. The saying "absence makes the heart grow fonder" is absolutely true in this case. Instead of relying on you for their needs, they will learn to care for themselves. In doing so, your relationship will become more balanced and less demanding on your end.

3. It may not be permanent: In today's economy, moving out is not always permanent. It's very possible your child will be moving back in after college or if their job goes south. This is both totally normal and hope for you to have your baby under your roof again.

Celebrity Baby News: Jade Roper & Tanner Tolbert Reveal Baby Boy's Name

By Bonnie Griffin

In the latest celebrity baby news, Bachelor in Paradise's Jade Roper and Tanner Tolbert share their baby boy's name two days after his emergency home birth. On August 1, Roper revealed her baby's name on Instagram saying, "Say hello to Brooks Easton Tolbert!" According to UsMagazine.com, this celebrity couple welcomed their baby boy into the world on July 29th at their home.

In celebrity baby news, Jade & Tanner finally revealed their newborn son's name. What are some ways to compromise with your partner on baby names?

Cupid's Advice:

When you're expecting a child one of the hardest decisions to make can sometimes be coming up with a name you and your partner agree on. It's an important decision, and one you cannot change once it's been made. It can often mean compromises on both sides to come to an agreement. Cupid has some advice on ways to compromise with your partner on baby names:

1. Create a list: You and your partner can begin by each creating a list of baby names that you like. Compare your list and pick out any names you both put down. From there, you can work through the names each of you like to make your decision.

2. Family names: Family names can often be a sticking point when one of you has a name you are set on passing down to your child. If one of you has a family name you really want to use consider using it as a middle name as a compromise. This way the name gets incorporated without being the name used for your child every day.

3. Find a common theme: If you are having trouble narrowing down a name, start with coming up with a theme you both agree on. Maybe you both know you want a unique name, or you can agree you want your baby to have a traditional name. It isn't the final name but it is a good starting point that can help you get there and come up with a name you can both agree on.

What are some ways you would compromise with your partner when choosing your baby's name? Let us know your thoughts in the comments below.

Celebrity Parents: Former 'Bachelor' Arie Luyendyk Jr. Calls Wife Lauren the 'Hottest Momma'

By Katie Sotack

Arie Luyendyk still has the hots for his final rose recipient and now wife, Lauren. The caption on a recent Instagram post of his wife in a swimsuit holding their eight week old baby read, "I love those cheeks. Proud of you @laurenluyendyk, hottest momma around #8weeks". According to EOnline.com the celebrity couple are having a grand old time as parents. They can be seen hiking and eating out on social media where they document their trials and tribulations of new parenthood. As for the post, Lauren responded with a squeamish "Omg baby", to which Arie let us know he couldn't help himself with a simple "Sorrrrryyyyy".

These celebrity parents are always supporting and uplifting each other. What are some ways to support your partner after she gives birth?

Cupid's Advice:

Arie and Lauren are enjoying their time together as new parents, but Arie has been sure to let new dads know it's a vital job as well. "It will be hard, it will challenge your relationship. It will also be the best thing you'll have ever done together," the former Bachelor said. Take a parenting tip from Arie, and use these ways to be there for your partner after the birth of your child:

1. Take care of Mama: With the focus on the new life you've brought into the world, remembering the needs of the woman who's produced this baby can fall to the bottom of the list. But don't let it. Pregnancy and birth takes a huge toll on the body. Hormonal-wise, the baby package is likely a roller coaster that does not dissipate after postpartum. Take the time to check in with your partner emotionally and physically during the ordeal.

2. Get her a gift: I'm not talking flowers here, though even that gesture is nice. Instead think of the traumatic toll birth has taken on her body and get her something she needs. Try something like MOMBOX, a subscription service that delivers a box full of goodies for postpartum moms. They have boxes for vaginal birth and c-sections which come with things like transition panties, herbal bath salts, and nipple cream. If you're not into prepackaged gifts, try to put a basket together yourself. Use your knowledge of what relaxes your partner and what's currently paining her to create the perfect gift.

Underwood Is Doing Differently as a Second-Time Mom

3. Give her alone time: Her entire life is revolved around your baby right now, but her mental health is important too. Once a week offer to watch the baby by yourself for a few hours so mom can do something for herself. Suggest taking a bubble bath or going out with friends/family. Anything to remind her that she is a person outside of your precious child and her needs deserve to be met too.
