Khloe is six months into her pregnancy, so a Kardashian-filled Ohio is not too far away.

This celebrity baby-to-be will join his or her parents in Cleveland. What are some things to consider about the birth of your child?

Cupid's Advice:

Having a child can be both an exciting and nerve wrecking time, but planning and making arrangements before the child's birth are both key. Cupid has some tips on things to think about before bringing your little bundle of joy into the world:

1. What don't you know?: Read, read, read and ask, ask, ask! It's time to learn. Know what to expect and know what to do when you go into labor. Ask a medical professional any questions you have in order to have a full understanding on the situation. And of course, do some reading. There are a lot of books for the mommy-to-be. Understanding things will help you plan better for the big day.

2. How do you want the birth to be?: Do you want a home birth or hospital birth? Do you want epidural or no epidural? Talk to a medical professional about your options and weigh the pros and the cons of each. Every person is different, so after you have all the facts, think about which option is best for you. And be prepared, too. When your due date is approaching, prepare a bag full of necessities you need to take to the hospital, or if you're going in the home birth route, have a box of things ready – that way, once you're in labor, you're ready to go!

3. Who do you want present at the birth?: Decide and make arrangements now to ensure a higher probability for things to go as planned. This decision is a personal one, which should be well thought out, considering you will be in a different state of mind at that moment! You can also arrange for someone to take the lead and keep everyone in the loop (sending texts, making calls) once you're preoccupied.

Cupid's Advice:

Integrating a broken family can be hard on children, but sometimes it comes naturally. Either way, Cupid has some advice for the fam:

1. Resolve any issues you may have with former partners: It is important that all parents/adults create or maintain a healthy relationship with one another. This can help children against feeling like their loyalty toward their parent and their step parent must be divided somehow.

2. Establish roles: Establish expectations. Parents play many roles, but one of the most important roles that should be decided is the disciplinary role. Children must learn the role of the step parent in order to know what to expect. Once there is an understanding, a meaningful and trusting relationship can begin to mold.

3. Have tons of family time: Make new traditions or mix the old with the new. Spending quality time with one another is an essential part to building a family unit. We're highly anticipating this celebrity baby's entrance to the world. What are some important ways to prepare for the birth of your child?

Cupid's Advice:

While pregnancy can be a beautiful time, it can also be the opposite of graceful. There are many things you can do, but here are a few:

1. Eat smaller portions, but more meals, to relive heartburn:

Instead of eating three big meals three times a day, aim to eat several small ones throughout the day. Also, eat slowly. Overfilling your stomach can cause an acid reflex, resulting in heartburn.

2. Get you a prenatal acupuncturist: It can help reduce morning sickness, insomnia, and fatigue! Acupuncture is known to help with many things. It relaxes you and can elevate your mood. It can also help with headaches and back pains. Soothe yourself, your body deserves it!

There's another Fixer Upper celebrity baby on the way! What are some ways to be sure you give attention to each of your children when you have a big family?

Cupid's Advice:

Big families are tons of fun! At times, it can be overwhelming, but there's never a lack of excitement. It's normal for children to feel deprived of attention in larger families, so if you're looking for ways to help find the balance, check out these tips from Cupid:

1. One-on-one time: Sometimes, all your kids really want is some quality time with you and your partner. Consider giving each of your children one day a month (or whatever works for your schedule) to spend the whole day with you. Make the day about them and give them the chance to choose what they want to do! They'll totally appreciate the quality time with you or with your partner.

2. Emphasize group activities: Group activities are always a wonderful way to include everyone! Whether you play a game together, bake a bunch of cookies, or visit a local park, there are plenty of ways to spend equal amounts of time with all of your kids. Plus, these activities are big memory makers that are cherished long down the road.

3. Manage your schedules: If you have a large family, it's important to figure out a schedule that works. You should always encourage your kids to try new things and be ambitious, though you also have to be practical. Too many extracurricular commitments will hinder the time spent with each of your children. If your schedule seems overwhelming, perhaps one activity at a time is a good option!

This celebrity baby news isn't exactly surprising, but we're happy for the couple! What are some ways your relationship changes when you have a child?

Cupid's Advice:

A baby brings lots of changes to you and your partner's relationship. If you're apprehensive about the jump from two to three, you're not alone! Being aware of the changes is helpful, so here's what Cupid has to say:

1. Imbalanced effort: You and your partner might experience growing pains when it comes to divvying up your parental duties. The laundry and bottle washing will seem endless at times! With two of you and one of them, it's certainly challenging to figure out a system that works for each other. It can be done, though!

Related Link: Celebrity News: Amy Duggar's Parents Are Divorcing

2. Drained energy: Your new bundle of joy doesn't come with a concept of time, so late-late nights and early mornings are inevitable. Both you and your partner will have a lack of energy when it comes to your relationship. While you know what you should be doing for each other, sometimes you just won't feel up to it. Recognize the importance of affirmations and making time for each other, though! You two need to lean on each other in this new chapter of your lives.

3. Hindered intimacy: Similar to strained energy, there will certainly be hindered intimacy between you and your partner. The desire to sleep will sometimes (okay, more than sometimes) overpower your desire for intimacy. That is normal – most couples struggle with this! Try your best to keep the romance alive. Start small, and you'll be back to your pre-baby selves in no time at all!

y Jessica Gomez

In celebrity baby news, celebrity couple Eva Longoria and Jose Bastón are expecting a baby boy, according to EOnline.com. Longoria has raved about being a stepmother, and was in no rush to have children of her own. "If it happens, it happens, if it's meant to be it would be a blessing," she said last year. Turns out, it is meant to be!

Eva Longoria's very own celebrity baby is coming into a full house! What are some ways to prepare step-children for a new baby?

Cupid's Advice:

Parents are not the only ones that need to be prepared for a baby. Everyone in the household needs to be, including children. Cupid has some advice:

1. Involve them: Allow the children to bond with the baby. They can read a bedtime story, play music, or sing. Get them excited to be an older sibling! Or have them talk through your belly. This connects the children to the baby before he or she is even born.

Related Link: Kirsten Dunst Is Expecting First Child With Jesse Plemons

2. Create rules before the baby comes: Talk to the kids. Keep them in the loop! Let them know how things will be once the baby comes and what you expect from them. This is important so children won't be caught off guard by any changes.

Related Link: Did Khloe Kardashian Just Accidentally Confirm Her Pregnancy?

3. Spend time with them: You have more time now than you will once the baby is born, so take advantage. Spending quality time is always important, but it is especially essential when a transition period is approaching. You can plan family outings or one-on-one time. Blocks of uninterrupted time with your kiddos now is important because it will not come by as often once the baby arrives.

Cupid's Advice:

A second baby is very exciting! While you certainly are more of a parenting pro the second time around, there are still some considerations to keep in mind. Check what Cupid has to say:

1. Talk to the future big sis/bro: Your first child is used to garnering all the attention from you and your partner, so another kiddo will be an adjustment for them. Make sure you take the time to talk to the first-born so they know what to expect. Make it clear that you still love them just as much, and that nothing will change your relationship.

The toy that your first-born child played with one time will feel brand new for your second kid!

3. Take inventory of what you have and need: Sure, you have most of the necessities already, but before baby #2 arrives, get together with your partner and assess your current staples. The latest celebrity news is all about the next celebrity baby! Celebrity couple Chrissy Teigen and John Legend just announced baby number two! After having trouble and finally having baby Luna through IVF, the couple is excited to expand their family. According to UsMagazine.com, the celebrity couple has a male embryo on ice to add a little boy to their hopes of a large family!

This celebrity baby news is a very happy occasion. What are some ways to keep your baby news under wraps until you're ready?

Cupid's Advice:

As exciting as having a baby is, sometimes we want to keep the announcement under wraps. Whether it's because of a difficult pregnancy or you are trying to raise the anticipation, keeping things under wraps can work in your favor. There's more than just a baby bump to think about hiding until you're ready to share the news. Check out our parenting advice to get you through your pregnancy secrets:

1. The new diet: Once you find out you're pregnant, your diet is going to start changing. It might be that you've eaten junk food most of your life and need to start a healthy streak, or the pregnancy and morning sickness are limiting your eating desires, but at some point people will notice. Tell a white lie and say you're starting a new diet.

2. Doctor or dentist: You're going to be going to a lot of doctor appointments, but how are you going to hide them all? The only time women go to the doctor a lot is if there is something wrong or they're pregnant. If you're telling another white lie, fudge the facts and instead of yet another doctor visit, say you're going to the dentist or optometrist.

Kim Kardashian Announces the Sex of Celebrity Baby No. 3

y Rachel Sparks

Kim Kardashian just revealed the sex of celebrity baby number three! According to EOnline.com, during an interview with Ellen Degeneres, Kim Kardashian was telling a story where North West said, "Mom, baby sister isn't here. I think I need all the toys in my room." This celebrity couple is on their way to a full house!

It looks like Kim and Kanye will be welcoming another celebrity baby girl to their brood! What are some ways to prepare for a third child versus the first or the second?

Cupid's Advice:

Each addition of a new child takes its own preparation. When you brought home baby number two, you worried how your first born would react to not getting as much attention. Now, you know more about handling an infant, so there's less to buy and worry about. But having a third infant is different. Now you've got two older siblings to prepare, five schedules to try and balance, and the financial strain of another kid. How can you prepare for baby number three with less stress? Read our parenting advice below:

1. Potty train: If you have older kids that aren't potty trained yet, go ahead and make your life so much easier now and get those kids' butts on the toilet. You don't want to have an infant strapped to your chest while you're chasing a screaming, naked two year old around the house.

2. Prep the house: Besides setting up a nursery, there's a lot that you can do before baby number three gets here. If you have carpets and children, you know what a disaster that can be. While redoing floors may not be at the top of your prepping list, removing carpets can help you avoid allergies and stains. Buy the carpet tile samples from a home improvement store for a cheap and easily replaced rug for your kids' rooms.

3. Start a routine: Children thrive off of routines, but changing them can be hard. Start the newborn routine now so the kids won't have such a hard time adjusting. The most critical thing is to ensure you spend alone time with each child so they know they won't be forgotten.

4. Encourage alliances: Building strong relationships with the kids and encouraging them to be the best of sibling friends will make entertaining the older kids much easier. It also teaches them how to look out for each other, making them feel special instead of left out when the newborn comes home.

Adam Levine & Pregnant Wife Behati Prinsloo Are Expecting a Second Baby Girl

y Rachel Sparks

Celebrity couple Adam Levine and Behati Prinsloo are expecting their second celebrity baby, and it's going to be another girl! According to UsMagazine, Adam Levine shared the baby gender news on the Ellen DeGeneres Show November 7th. When asked if they would be having more children, the expecting couple claim they both want a lot more children. We can't wait to see the family these two beauties build together!

This celebrity news has the girls outweighing the boys in Adam Levine's household! What are some ways to help your husband deal with an all-girl family?

Cupid's Advice:

Family dynamics are an important aspect as couples decide to have another child. Oftentimes, though, parents only think about how the older child(ren) will adapt to being an older child. But how do parents change as their family grows, especially when one gender is outnumbered? Read Cupid's parenting advice below:

1. Model through Mom: Children watch how their parents interact, and this sets the basis for a lot of their future relationships. When you're raising all daughters, the girls watch how mom and dad read each other. If you want to raise confident young women with high standards, show them what those standards should be by treating your spouse right.

2. Don't shy away as she grows: The whole family gets pretty terrified as the little ladies in the family start to grow up. Teenage years are terrible for everyone in the family, but don't shy away. The pre-teen years are especially important for developing the adult minds, so be careful of too much distance, even if that seems like what they want. Be there, be supportive, be present.

3. Date her: Put aside the Oedipal complex and realize that your role as the most important man in your daughter's life really does affect the future of her relationships with men. That's a lot of pressure. Take your daughter out for dates for genuine connection, but you'll also teach her how she should be treated. Make sure to spend authentic time with each of the kids alone to nourish both the present and the future for your children.

Cupid’s Advice:

Sometimes having a child does not always happen according to plan. If you or somebody you love is coping with infertility, Cupid has some ways to help during the difficult and emotional times:

1. Validate their feelings: A common mindset of people who struggle with fertility is to blame themselves. They have more than a right to be upset, so make sure they know it’s okay to feel what they’re feeling. It’s also important that they know they are not alone and their infertility issues are not their fault.

2. Learn: Infertility is kind of a taboo subject to talk about, so you might be in the dark about the details and latest information. Sit down at your computer and take some time to research the subject. Keeping up to date will show you care and will help you empathize with them a lot better.

3. Know what and what not to say: We often default into saying phrases that we've heard, and think are helpful (i.e. "just relax" or "you can always try another way"). In almost all cases, these words will hurt more than help. It's much more calming to ask your loved one "how are you doing" or "how can I help" because you're thinking of their feelings rather than trying to fix the problem. Most times, people just want somebody to listen to them.

Cupid's Advice:

A new baby is sure to bring a lot of excitement and joy, regardless if you have a little boy or girl. However, there are a few things to consider when preparing for a baby boy:

1. Be ready to play rough: Little boys like to play rough. This is totally natural, so don't be scared! Just make sure to teach them the difference between playing rough and intentionally trying to cause harm.

2. Embrace the gross: Boys are usually messier than girls. It's probably embedded within their DNA (just kidding!). Prepare to clean up lots of messes, and embrace your boy for who he is – even when he tracks a whole lot of mud into the house.

3. Don't tie yourself down to the stereotypes: Blue isn't just for boys! Don't feel pressured to follow that societal rule. You don't have to dress him in blue or buy him toy cars "because he's a boy." If you want to, then go for it – just know you have freedom to choose.

Prince William & Duchess Kate Reveal Due Date for Celebrity Baby No. 3

Revealed via Twitter, Kensington Palace shared the due date for Prince William and Duchess Kate's third bundle of joy. This celebrity baby, expected in April 2018, was kept under wraps until September 4. According to UsMagazine.com, the royal couple decided to reveal their pregnancy because of a missed engagement due to Duchess Kate's crippling morning sickness. We have no doubt the media will be camped out at Kensington Palace all spring until the big reveal of the new addition!

This royal celebrity baby is arriving in April 2018! What are some ways to decide timing when it comes to having children?

Cupid's Advice:

When baby fever hits, how do we know it's the right time? Kids are a serious, lifelong commitment and require more hours in the day than we have. While we may not all have celebrity babies, we understand that all couples, including famous couples, have to decide when it's the right time:

1. The puppy rule: We've all seen those happy couples who adopt a puppy and then announce their pregnancy a couple months later. Puppies, like babies, require late nights, selfless dedication, and constant attention. Can't handle a puppy yet? Hold off on those cute tiny toes until you can give all of yourself.

2. How's that career looking?: While not as demanding as a newborn, cultivating a stable and successful career takes a lot of time and dedication. As cute as those chubby cheeks are, wait until you can focus your time on your new baby and have the support from work.

3. That monster, debt: We've all been young, holding our first glossy credit card. There's appeal in swiping and getting what you want, but you have to pay for it at some point. As we get older, we accumulate student loan debt, car payments, mortgages, and medical bills. Even if you only have a few of these, think month by month. Will you be able to give your child everything you want them to have?

When baby fever hits, sometimes we can't say no. What are some other factors you consider before planning for your own bundle of joy? Start the discussion below.
