This duo is too cute, and they've now added a celebrity baby to the mix! What are some ways to know your relationship is ready for children?

Cupid's Advice:

Parenting can seem like a huge, daunting responsibility. Cupid is here with the top tips on knowing when you and your partner are ready for your next big adventure; kids:

1. You're financially secure: Before you and your partner start taking the necessary steps to expanding your family tree, make sure you're in a good place financially to add a member to your family unit. After all, to give your child a wonderful life, you'll need some sort of financial security, and to be in a position where you can rest easy knowing that you'll always be able to provide for kid's wants and needs. Make sure both you and your partner are ready to make the sacrifices and do the hard work to be in a good financial position for your child's future.

Related Link: Russell Wilson Reveals 'Best Part' of His Celebrity Wedding Day

2. Both you and your partner want children: This may seem like a no-brainer, but it's an important conversation to have. After all, for some having children is not even on their radar, and you don't want your partner to feel pressured into the decision to have a kid by your enthusiasm or desire for one. Sit down with your partner and make sure you're both on the same page, that you know what you want and that you have similar goals and plans for the future when it comes to your family-life.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Russell Wilson Says Fiancee Ciara is Way Out of His League

3. You can present a united front with your partner: It's never a good idea to try and use a child to "save" an already-failing relationship. If you and your partner are on the rocks, have poor communication, or a ton of unresolved issues, deal with those issues first and foremost before even considering having a kid. While it may seem like having a child would bring you and your partner together, in reality, bringing children into an already crumbling relationship is just a recipe for disaster and a lot of hurt on every side.

consider about your fitness routine while you're pregnant?

Cupid's Advice:

Pregnancy changes a lot of things: what you can eat, what you can wear, and how you can exercise, just to name a few. If you have a baby on the way, here are some factors to consider about your fitness routine:

1. Listen to your body: Most importantly, pay attention to what your body's telling you. Pre-pregnancy, you may have pushed yourself to run that half-marathon as fast as you can. Now that there's a little one on the way, listen to how you feel: Are you uncomfortable? Do you feel faint? Are you drinking enough water? Do you need to take a break?

Cupid’s Advice:

Children can fill your heart with so much love. That’s why the term “baby fever” is a very realistic and relatable term. Here are some things to consider before taking the plunge again:

1. Space: Do you have the room to accommodate another little one? While you may have the means to provide a roof over their head, keep in mind that children at different ages need different types of space. Consider upgrading or expanding your home to suit the needs of all your children.

Related Link: ‘Gilmore Girls’ Star Jared Padalecki’s Wife is Expecting Baby No. 3

2. Time: Consider the small amount of free time you have now with children. As they grow up, they become more involved in activities. Be sure to keep your growing family balanced with activities and socializing measures. A new baby might take time away from older children, so be ready to seek help getting the kids to school and soccer practice!
